

Twelfth Annual Edible Books Festival

April 8, 2018

Groton Public Library, 52 Newtown Road, Groton

Brought to you by:
Friends of the Bill Memorial Library
Friends of the Mystic & Noank Library
Groton Public Library Circle of Friends

What is an edible book? It can look like a book, pun on a title, refer to a character, or just have something to do with books - whatever the inspiration, it must be edible.

How does it work? This event is being held as part of the International Edible Book Festival. Just search online for “edible books” and you’ll find pictures, ideas, and history of the event. There are clever ideas, terrible puns, and some quite simple presentations—one will surely inspire you to create your own edible book!

Who can enter? Everyone is invited to create an edible entry—you can enter as a book group, family, or on your own! Here are a few rules:

1. It has to be edible.
2. It has to have a book connection in form or theme.
3. It has to be in good taste as well as taste good.
4. Submit the entry form to one of the Libraries by April 2.

Who’s invited? The Edible Books Festival is a family event, free and open to the public. Beverages will be provided.

What time?

1:15— Doors open for entrants to set up

1:30— Book viewing, book “tasting” and raffle

More Questions?

Contact:

Bill Memorial Library 860-445-0392

Mystic & Noank Library 860-536-7721

Groton Public Library 860-441-6750

ENTRY FORM

Creation Title: _____

Title of book creation is based on: _____

Creator’s Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone Number: _____

Email address: _____

Please return this form to your Library by April 2 and ask that it be put in the Friends’ mailbox.