

Lancaster Airport has an opening for a full time Line Service Technician. The hours and days may vary to include week days and weekend days with a typical shift being (12:30 pm - 8:30 pm). Hours of operation may be expanded beyond 8:30 pm in the future. Benefits include: paid vacation, holiday, sick and personal time; medical and Life insurance; retirement plan.

Candidate must be an outgoing, personable individual who makes a good first impression with customers and shall embody the following characteristics:

- Dependable, loyal & trustworthy.
- Hard working, self motivated & self directed.
- Organized, consistently accurate.
- Positive, energetic and proactive attitude.
- Customer-oriented and willing to be part of a team.
- Common sense with the ability and desire to learn
- Ability to multitask and think on your feet.
- Flexible and adaptable

Specific duties include but are not limited to:

- Line Service Technician
 - Aircraft fueling, marshaling, towing & deicing
 - Perform quality controls and FAA compliance checks
 - Aircraft servicing to include GPU & Lav service
 - Concierge & other CSR duties on a limited basis
 - Maintain grounds, hangar area, restrooms, etc.
 - Basic vehicle maintenance
 - Snow plowing (occasional afterhours work depending on snow)
 - operating and communicating on an active airport
 - Mowing

Minimum Job Requirements:

- 5 years driving experience with current driver's license & safe driving record.
- Experience driving a diesel refueler with air brakes would be helpful (CDL not necessary).
- Ability to pass FBI criminal background check, drug test etc.
- Required medium to light labor with ability to lift at least 75 lbs. Frequent stooping, bending and lifting are part of the normal workday routine. Much of the work is done outside even during inclement weather.

Start date: ASAP

Wages: $14.00 per hour to start