99s Airmark

Lancaster Airport

If you have ever flown in or out of LNS you may have noticed the airport marking on the roof of the terminal building. It has been quite some time since it has been refreshed, but thanks to the Eastern Pennsylvania Chapter of the Ninety-Nines, "Lancaster Airport" looks great again.

The Ninety-Nines is the international organization of women pilots who share a love for flight. The Eastern Pennsylvania Chapter of The Ninety-Nines has more than 100 members and enjoy many activities on the ground and in the air.

Lancaster Airport would like to thank all the 99's who were able to help out with the airmarking on Saturday, May 12th.

“The weather for Saturday morning wasn't quite straight forward. Rain was in the forecast throughout the night & into Saturday,” said 99s Eastern PA Chapter member, Heather Hill. Ms. Hill added, “But lo & behold by 6:00am Saturday morning, it was a GO ! We had a great turn out - the following hands were on deck: Alicia Sikes, Ginny Fanfera, Dorothy English, Terry Schmidt, Diane Hastings, Mary & Dave Gibb, Cheryl Benish, Carole Wyman, Lin Wesolowski, Amy Urbine, Deb Dreisher, Dan, Autumn, Kaitlyn & Amanda Hill, and Linda Evans flew in with Mary Wunder, & Claudia Garner.

We re-painted the airmarking that was originally painted in 2004 on the roof of the terminal building. 10' Black Letters that said "Lancaster Airport". (painted 2 coats)

A bucket truck transported us to the roof.

While we waited for the 1st coat to dry, Linda (pilot) & Mary W (photographer) flew over the terminal building to get a picture of the airmarking with all the volunteers. The volunteers had a grand time making a 99 (lots of laughs were had).”
