

Ken Pense
Principal, LeadershipOne

Ken Pense performs assessment and training in support of family businesses that are in transition from one generation to the next. Ultimately, partnering with family business, family members and leadership teams who are looking for deep and sustainable change. The steps are to discover who you truly are (passions, purpose, talents and skills) and then re-align your life, work and relationship around those discoveries.