

2017 Mid-Atlantic Regional Gathering
The Pleasure of Puppetry
Saturday April 22, 2017 8:30-3:30
at
The Waldorf School of Philadelphia
6000 Wayne Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19144

Please join us for a day of sharing and creating! This gathering is workshop based and all workshops have a supply fee so there is not an additional fee for the gathering. Lunch purchase is optional, you are welcome to bring your own. Please bring a little something sweet or savory to share during our refreshment break.

The background reading for our morning discussion is “The Pedagogical Value of Marionette and Table Puppet Shows for the Small Child” By Bronja Zahlingen found in A Lifetime of Joy (WECAN publications). Do you share puppetry with parents ? What is your experience of solo and group puppetry? What aspects of puppetry inspire you and what aspects are a challenge for you? What type of rhythm do you have of storytelling with and without puppets? These are just a few of the topics we can discuss.

Certificates of participation will be available at the end of the day.

Workshop Leaders

Patricia Cornelius has taught in the kindergarten at the Waldorf School of Philadelphia for 19 years. For the past 14 years she has worked with the parents in her class, teaching them the art of puppetry in the round and they have performed a play each year for the children in the class.

Katherine Scharff is a preschool and parent child teacher at the Waldorf School of Saratoga Springs, New York. Her focus has been on the needs of the two year old. She also has a background in nursing and is a Simplicity Parenting Family Life Coach.

Carolyn Mogey has been loving and performing Waldorf Kindergarten puppetry for 27 years. She is a graduate of Suzanne Down's Puppetry Training Program(Juniper Tree) and is currently performing weekly puppet shows for the kindergartens of Susquehanna Waldorf School and monthly shows for Kimberton Waldorf School. During the summer she brings the magic of puppetry to the children at Heritage Creek Farm Camp in Mount Joy, Pa. Carolyn lives in Marietta, Pa.

Mary Maschal teaches kindergarten at the Waldorf School of Saratoga Springs, New York. She completed the Juniper Tree School of Puppetry Arts Training in 2014. She especially enjoys outdoor puppetry and her motto is "Have Story Apron- Will Travel!".
