EfM will have a spaghetti lunch and bake sale fundraiser on July 9th. The spaghetti lunch will include spaghetti, salad, dessert, either a cinnamon roll or brownie, and a drink (if you eat in) to go orders will be available. Cinnamon rolls and brownies will be available to purchase at the bake sale. Lunch will cost $7 per person.

Neighbors Table

Our Neighbors Table meal on June 10 was a great success!

Our guests love fresh salad and eat as much as we can fix. Too, we are hosting newcomers to our table almost every week. Please remember Neighbors Table in your prayers.

To serve on a Saturday morning, call or text Catherine, 264-4346, or sign up on the white boards. If you would like to serve in other ways, or have questions, call or text Catherine.

Team leaders and members for June 24: Jeff Aulgur, Crys, Leah and CIP.

Upcoming Diocesan Events

Become a Magdalene Mentor

As part of the Magdalene Coming Home project, mentors visit monthly with incarcerated women at J. A. Hawkins Unit in Wrightsville, Ark. There are several ways that you can become a part of this work:

Become a mentor and make the one-year commitment to visit a woman, one-on-one, for an hour each month.

Become a pen pal with a woman who has a longer sentence but little support from family and friends.

Mentor with women at "Hope Rises," a women's transitional home in Little Rock for those who have been released from prison.

If any of these options interest you, contact Kathy Kaczmarek (501-590-2515, kathykaz2011@gmail.com) or Ginny Chase (303-809-5303, ginrc.chase@gmail.com) for more information.

Farm Camp at Camp Mitchell

Tilling the earth to grow food is a central act throughout the Bible. This camp, held July 30–Aug. 4, will examine how God challenges us to better know creation through getting our hands dirty in the soil. Learn more at campmitchell.org.

"Dear All Saints Family,

We want to express our deepest thanks to those of you who were able to attend Noah's piano recital on May 27. Because of your generous support, his attendance at Lutheran Summer Music this June/July has been fully funded. He has felt overwhelmed and humbled by your kindness. He looks forward to a summer of spiritual and musical growth and will no doubt have much to share with you when he returns. Again, THANK YOU for nurturing Noah so beautifully in his musical and spiritual journey in the church!

With much love and gratitude, Noah, Kristin and Tim Smith"

The Collect of the day

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Keep, O Lord, your household the Church in your steadfast faith and love, that through your grace we may proclaim your truth with boldness, and minister your justice with compassion; for the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. AMEN.

Genesis 18:1-15, 21:1-7

Lector:

A reading from the book of Genesis.

The Lord appeared to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat at the entrance of his tent in the heat of the day. He looked up and saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent entrance to meet them, and bowed down to the ground. He said, "My lord, if I find favor with you, do not pass by your servant. Let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. Let me bring a little bread, that you may refresh yourselves, and after that you may pass on—since you have come to your servant." So they said, "Do as you have said." And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah, and said, "Make ready quickly three measures of choice flour, knead it, and make cakes." Abraham ran to the herd, and took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to the servant, who hastened to prepare it. Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree while they ate.

They said to him, "Where is your wife Sarah?" And he said, "There, in the tent." Then one said, "I will surely return to you in due season, and your wife Sarah shall have a son." And Sarah was listening at the tent entrance behind him. Now Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in age; it had ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women. So Sarah laughed to herself, saying, "After I have grown old, and my husband is old, shall I have pleasure?" The Lord said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh, and say, 'Shall I indeed bear a child, now that I am old?' Is anything too wonderful for the Lord? At the set time I will return to you, in due season, and Sarah shall have a son." But Sarah denied, saying, "I did not laugh"; for she was afraid. He said, "Oh yes, you did laugh."

[The Lord dealt with Sarah as he had said, and the Lord did for Sarah as he had promised. Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the time of which God had spoken to him. Abraham gave the name Isaac to his son whom Sarah bore him. And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him. Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him. Now Sarah said, "God has brought laughter for me; everyone who hears will laugh with me." And she said, "Who would ever have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age."]

Psalm 116:1-2, 12-19

I love the Lord, because he has heard the voice of my supplication, *
because he has inclined his ear to me whenever I called upon him.

How shall I repay the Lord *
for all the good things he has done for me?

I will lift up the cup of salvation *
and call upon the Name of the Lord.

I will fulfill my vows to the Lord *
in the presence of all his people.

Precious in the sight of the Lord *
is the death of his servants.

O Lord, I am your servant; *
I am your servant and the child of your handmaid;
you have freed me from my bonds.

I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving *
and call upon the Name of the Lord.

I will fulfill my vows to the Lord *
in the presence of all his people.

In the courts of the Lord's house, *
in the midst of you, O Jerusalem.
Hallelujah!

Romans 5:1-8

Lector: A Reading from the Letter of the Apostle Paul to the Romans.

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person-- though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

Officiant

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest."

Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: "Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, 'The kingdom of heaven has come near.' Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment. [Take no gold, or silver, or copper in your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics, or sandals, or a staff; for laborers deserve their food. Whatever town or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy, and stay there until you leave. As you enter the house, greet it. If the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it; but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet as you leave that house or town. Truly I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that town.

"See, I am sending you out like sheep into the midst of wolves; so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. Beware of them, for they will hand you over to councils and flog you in their synagogues; and you will be dragged before governors and kings because of me, as a testimony to them and the Gentiles. When they hand you over, do not worry about how you are to speak or what you are to say; for what you are to say will be given to you at that time; for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you. Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death; and you will be hated by all because of my name. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next; for truly I tell you, you will not have gone through all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes.”]

Nicene Creed

BCP pg. 358

Please stand

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. AMEN.

The Prayers of the People

Please kneel as able.

Form IV

BCP: pg. 388

The Leader and the People pray responsively

Let us pray for the Church and for the world. Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us.

We pray especially for those who are celebrating birthdays.

We pray for those celebrating wedding anniversaries.

We pray for those expecting a child.

We pray for those on active military duty.

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind or spirit, and give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation.

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Prayer for the Parish
Leader and People

BCP 817

Almighty and everliving God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth, hear our prayers for this parish family. Strengthen the faithful, arouse the careless, and restore the penitent. Grant us all things necessary for our common life, and bring us all to be of one heart and mind within your holy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Silence.

The People may add their own petitions.

Officiant adds a concluding collect.

Confession

BCP pg. 360

Officiant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Officiant and People

Most merciful God, We confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. AMEN.

Dedication and Celebration of the ministries of Edible Churchyard, Green Team, and Memorial Garden.

People: God will not overlook your work and the love which you show for his sake.

Priest: Teach me do what pleases you, for you are my God.

Min. Member: Let your good Spirit lead me on level ground.

Clergy: Let us pray.

Regard, O Lord, our supplications, and confirm with your heavenly benediction your servants whose ministry is carried out in a somber and dignified manner. Give them the grace necessary to serve you with sincere devotion of mind and body that their service may be acceptable to your divine Majesty. We ask all these in the name of Jesus our Lord.

People: Amen.

The Holy Communion

Officiant The gifts of God for the people of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Whoever you are, and wherever you are in your pilgrimage of faith, you are welcome in this place; you are welcome at God's table.

We believe Christ is present in the gifts of bread and wine. You may come down the center aisle to the altar rail, in turn. To receive the bread, simply open your hands, and respond after you receive saying "Amen." Please help the chalice bearer with the cup, grasping the base and guiding the cup to your lips with the same response, "Amen." Return to your pew by the side aisles. If for any reason you do not wish to receive communion, you are welcome to receive a blessing from one of the priests or deacons. Please come to the altar rail and cross your arms over your chest to indicate your intention.

Communion: "Come, thou font of every blessing" (#686)

Let us pray.

Peace Prayer -----

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. AMEN.
