

BIO – Scott Weiss

Scott Weiss is an attorney at Ortale Kelley Law Firm and Tennessee's only Fellow of CAI's prestigious College of Community Association Lawyers

<https://www.caionline.org/Advocacy/LegalArena/CCAL/Pages/default.aspx>

Scott's practice is dedicated primarily to community association law. Scott represents associations in matters involving delinquent account collections, restrictions enforcement, creditor's rights in bankruptcy, State & Federal Fair Housing laws; governing document interpretation and drafting, amendments, fine policies and association general counsel matters. Scott is a member of the National and Tennessee Association of Parliamentarians and applies his knowledge of parliamentarian procedure at regular and special community association membership and board meetings. <http://www.ortalekelley.com/scott-d-weiss/>