

SAVE THE DATE...SAVE THE DATE...SAVE THE DATE

The next professional development training for Parent Teacher Home Visits is now set. It's open to ALL staff members who have not received introductory home visit training in the past or who need a refresher.

This includes: classroom teachers, support staff, office managers, attendance clerks, counselors, librarians, administrators, etc.

During this three-hour session, we will cover the PTHV model for conducting relationship-building home visits, review current research about the impact of home visits, and share relevant parent and teacher perspectives on home visits.

WHAT: Introductory Parent Teacher Home Visit Training

WHEN: Monday, December 10th, 4pm-7pm

WHERE: SCTA Office
5300 Elvas Ave.
Sacramento, CA 95819

RSVP: Gretchen Viglione at Gretchen-Viglione@scusd.edu

Please provide your full name, job title, school, and contact information to complete your registration.

In order to be compensated for training and for making home visits, you must be at a Home Visit funded site