2018 UNCF WASHINGTON MAYOR'S MASKED BALL

"Please join me at the 6th Annual Washington DC, UNCF Mayor's Masked Ball. Last year, the DC Ball raised almost a half of a million dollars to help young people achieve their dreams in pursuit of a higher education; putting them on a pathway to the middle class. With your help and support, UNCF can raise even more this year!"

~Mayor Muriel Bowser

In 2013, the UNCF Washington Area Office presented the inaugural UNCF Washington Masked Ball following in the successful tradition of many other UNCF major markets. In 2015 the event was re-launched as the UNCF Washington Mayor's Masked Ball and has been hosted by the Honorable Muriel Bowser, Mayor of Washington, D.C. every year since. An impressive array of sponsors from the corporate community support this festive evening featuring dignitaries, civic leaders, public officials, alumni and others who support the UNCF mission of investing in Better Futures by moving youth in the Washington metropolitan area to and through college.

The UNCF Washington Mayor's Masked Ball raises funds to support scholarships and programs for nearly 4,000 students from the greater Washington, DC- area who attend UNCF-member institutions and other colleges across the nation. Revenue from the Mayor's Masked Ball has grown 200% since the inaugural event thanks to the unwavering and generous support of our sponsors and attendees but there is still so much more work to do – please consider becoming a sponsor or increasing your sponsorship this year; more students than ever are counting on us.
