

KDS 4-H Has Lots of Honors at the County Roundup

The Marshall County 4-H Roundup was held at the Guntersville Recreation Center and Civitan Park. Students from all over the County competed in several different events. When the competition was over, the judges announced their winners including KDS Middle School teacher Stephanie Guffey being named the 4-H Leader of the Year.

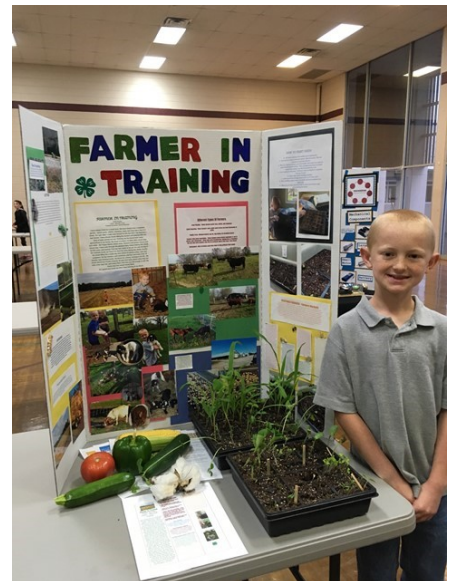

(left) Ansley Barnes earned the 4-H Marshall County Secretary of the Year award.

(right) Sisters Khloe and Katie Randles placed 2nd in the Animal Science - Intermediate Division.

(left) Addison Russell and Peyton Russell participated in the bird house competition.

(right) Kaden Randles earned 2nd place in Natural Resources - Junior Division.

KDS winners at the 2018 Marshall County 4-H County Roundup:

- Stephanie Guffey - 4-H Leader of the Year
- Ansley Barnes - 4-H Secretary of the Year
- Khloe Randles - 1st Place in $15 Challenge - Intermediate Division
- Breanna Black - 1st Place in Record Books - Intermediate Division
- Khloe Randles - 1st Place in Bake Off - Junior Division
- Eli Chapman - 3rd Place in Bake Off - Junior Division
- Ezra Keller - 3rd Place in Blocks Rock - Junior Division
- Katie Randles - 2nd Place in Chef 4-H - Intermediate Division
- Lauren Buchanan and Addie Walker - 3rd Place in Freestyle Demonstration - Junior Division
- Ansley Barnes - 1st Place in Freestyle Demonstration - Intermediated Division
- Kaden Randles - 2nd Place in Natural Resources - Junior Division
- Katie and Khloe Randles - 2nd Place in Animal Science - Intermediate Division
- Brody Smith - 1st Place in STEM - Junior Division
- Breanna Black - 1st Place in Healthy Living - Intermediate Division
- Landon Black - 3rd Place in Healthy Living - Intermediate Division
- Landon Black - 3rd Place in Woodworking - Junior Division
- Breanna Black - 2nd Place in Woodworking - Intermediate Division