

Graduation 2018

Graduation is a KDS tradition which involves many activities and much planning and preparation. It the culmination of thirteen years of work and serves as the starting point for the next phase of these students' young lives. This year, 113 young men and women graduated from KDS DAR School.

Student speakers Caitlin Wright, Emily Wilson and Taylor Corbin reflected on their time at KDS and shared special memories and inspirational thoughts with their classmates and families and friends in attendance.

Long-time friend of KDS, Sarah Craft, was happy to be in the audience to see the graduation festivities.
