

KDS Students Excel at 4H Roundup

The Alabama Cooperative Extension System's Marshall County 4-H Program held its annual County 4-H Round-Up on April 27 at the Guntersville Recreation Center. 4-H members, their parents, siblings and teachers, along with more than 60 volunteers were in attendance. More than 280 participants from all over Marshall County completed 376 projects for the event. Thirteen students from KDS DAR Elementary and Middle Schools placed in 11 different project areas.

4-H'ers work all year in their home clubs to be eligible to compete at County Round-Up. First place winners in each category advanced to Regional Congress on May 20th at Northeast Alabama Community College in Rainsville. There, they competed against 4-H'ers in five additional northeast Alabama counties.
