

KDS SENIOR AWARDS DAY

Senior Awards Day is a time to recognize graduating KDS seniors for their achievements and to award them scholarships which will enable them to pursue their future goals. On Friday, May 18th, approximately $811,650 in scholarships was presented to 69 deserving KDS graduates. The scholarship totals with their sources are as follows:

$532,750 – Scholarships from Colleges, Universities, and the Military

$93,400 – Scholarships sponsored by the DAR

$185,500 – Scholarships sponsored by the community/foundations

These 69 KDS graduates will enter college this fall with the help of scholarships provided by colleges and universities, the community and foundations as well as those sponsored by the DAR.

Virginia Lingelbach, Corresponding Secretary General, NSDAR, presented the Longman Harris NSDAR Scholarship to Caitlin Wright.

Hannah Beth Ayers was presented the Edward and Elizabeth Samsa Memorial Scholarship by Rita P. Horton, Honorary State Regent, Alabama.

Florida State Regent Dawn Lemongello presented the Sylvia Metcalf Lissa Memorial Scholarship to Rachel Hammons.

Limyer Aglosolos was presented the DAR of Michigan Scholarship by Gina M. LaCroix, First Vice Regent, DAR of Michigan.

Fifty special awards were given as well, totaling more than $10,125. These awards recognized the students for not only their academic achievements, but also their service, their attitudes and work ethic, and their commitment to excellence.

KDS Merit Scholarship Awards recognize academic achievement, attitude, and school and community service and were presented to Charles Montgomery, Taylor Corbin and Emily Campbell by Patrice R. Donnelly, Second Vice Regent, Alabama Society DAR.

Katherine Saylor was awarded the Marie Hirst Yochim Athletic award by KDS Board of Trustees Chairman Cheryl Harrison.

Alabama State Regent Nancy Folk presented the Green Thumb Award to Caleb Smith.