

Baptist Women in the Twentieth Century: Missionaries, Mission Leaders, Churchwomen, Civil Rights Activists, and Ministers

Smoke Rise Baptist Church
5901 Hugh Howell Road
Stone Mountain, Georgia 30087

Thursday, May 31, 2018:

- 2:30 p.m. Registration Open, Refreshments, and Exhibits
- 3:30 p.m. Welcoming Event, Doug Weaver presiding
Welcome from Doug Weaver, BH&HS President; Chris George, Senior Pastor,
Smoke Rise Baptist Church; and John Finley BH&HS Executive Director
- 4:00 p.m. Keynote Speaker: Melody Maxwell: "A Winding and Widening Path: American Women's Roles in Twentieth-Century Baptist Life"
- 5:30 p.m. Awards Dinner
- 7:00 p.m. Plenary Session, Doug Weaver, presiding. Music: Ossie X. McKinney
Speaker: Molly T. Marshall: "Why Bobbed Hair, Bossy Wives, and Women
Preachers Are Here to Stay: A Little Side-eye at John R. Rice and Others of His ilk"
- 8:30 p.m. Dessert Reception

Friday, June 1, 2018:

- 7:30 a.m. Fellowship of Baptist Historians Breakfast. Melody Maxwell, President, presiding
Speaker: Walter B. Shurden, Sr.: "Things I've Learned As a Baptist Historian"
- 9:00 a.m. Business Session, Doug Weaver, presiding
- 10:00 a.m. Breakout Sessions
- 11:30 a.m. Lunch
- 1:00 p.m. Breakout Sessions
- 3:00 p.m. Plenary Session, Pamela Durso, presiding
Closing Address: Mandy McMichael: "Many Voices: The Complexity of Baptist Women's History"
- 4:00 p.m. Adjourn