FAREWELL & THANK YOU

Since 1990, Deacon Robert and Sister Connie Moses, and Family, have been faithful members of the Memorial Tabernacle Church Family. Sadly however, we must now say, 'Goodbye.' On June 16th they will be moving to Fairburn, Georgia, where they will begin a new chapter in their lives.

Over the past twenty-seven years, Deacon Moses have served the church as a deacon, choir and praise team member, Sunday school teacher, Breakfast in Bed team leader and numerous other helps ministries throughout the church. Sister Connie Moses has served in the Missions Ministry, Sunday school teacher, Breakfast in Bed team co-leader, prayer ministry, and other helps in the church as well. They genuinely love and supported Pastor King in the vision and mission of the church.

On June 11th will be the last Sunday they will worship with us. Join us as we say, "God bless, and farewell" to these wonderful, faithful supporters, and people of God. Their presence and their ministry will be genuinely missed.
