

Lisa Rhudy is Vice President – Asset Management with Pattillo Industrial Real Estate and is responsible for the economic performance of Pattillo's existing portfolio of over 70 buildings totaling approximately 12 million SF located in the southeastern US. Leading an internal team of Asset Management and Property Management professionals.

Lisa began with Pattillo in 1993 as the manager of a hotel owned and operated by Pattillo. After successfully leading the hotel through its first major renovation and the 1996 Olympics, she joined the Pattillo corporate office providing operational leadership to the renovation and maintenance arm of the company.

A few years later, she joined the leasing team where she worked as a landlord representative for over 10 years. She was the first woman to serve in this capacity at Pattillo. Her role entailed marketing, negotiating, and leasing properties for Pattillo properties within the Metro Atlanta market while also maintaining and supporting her tenant relationships. Simultaneously, she also helped develop, support and maintain the company's first integrated property and accounting database, which is still in operation today.

In 2011, Lisa established a new Property Management division of the company including building a team with responsibility for the occupancy experience of over 300 tenants in over 200 buildings in the Southeast U.S. A few years later, she was promoted to VP of Asset Management in which she also started the asset management department to align the roles and responsibilities of asset management and property management into one larger team. Since that time, she has guided this team through several multi-million dollar dispositions providing capital for the company to re-invest into new modern developments and help change the company's overall investment strategies.

Most recently, she has been on the development team of the new Pattillo Industrial Real Estate headquarters in Chamblee. This was a 3+ yearlong TOD joint partner project, which delivered the first Class A LEED certified office buildings to Chamblee in May 2018.

Lisa is a graduate of Leadership CREW, Leadership DeKalb, and is currently involved with CREW Atlanta.

Lisa proudly resides in Smyrna, GA with her husband and two school age children who attend Whitefield Academy. She enjoys spending quality time with her family, volunteering for children's activities at her church and children's school, chairing the Long Range Planning Committee at her church in which a 25 year master plan has just been completed and unveiled under her leadership, and socializing with her long standing book club. She also enjoys traveling domestically and internationally.

Lisa graduated magna cum laude from Berry College in Rome, GA.
