From Mr. Stone's Desk

Greetings Immaculate Conception School Community,

Many of us say the Lord's Prayer daily. At home, here at school, religion class perhaps, etc. It is also a standard part of mass. When we say the Our Father, what are we saying? It is available to pray anytime whether we're in a group setting or having an individual chat with God, but what does it mean for us?

Whether you're an old school back in the day Baltimore Catechism/CCD individual or a more modern Catechism of the Catholic Church/PREP person hopefully the Lord's Prayer represents more than rote memory and compliance at mass.

The Lord's Prayer is "the summary of the whole Gospel." (CCC #2761) It represents the key beliefs and principles of our Catholic faith.

Lord's Prayer/Our Father: DNA of Christian Prayer

Our = In union/communion with all who belong to the Body of Christ

Father = Personal relationship with God the Father

Who Art In Heaven

= Our destiny; God is already in perfect bliss

Hallowed Be Thy Name

= Honoring the sacred name of God

Thy Kingdom Come = Kingdom of David

Thy Will Be Done On Earth As It Is In Heaven

= Spiritual warfare

Give Us This Day Our Daily Bread

= Petitionary; Eucharist fulfills all our needs

And Forgive Us Our Trespasses As We

Forgive Those Who Trespass Against Us

= If you don't forgive you will not be forgiven

And Lead Us Not Into Temptation

But Deliver Us From Evil, Amen = God never

leads us into evil, though conflict/temptation exist

Catechism of the Catholic Church:

2761 The Lord's Prayer "is truly the summary of the whole gospel." "Since the Lord. . .after handing over the practice of prayer, said elsewhere, 'Ask and you will receive,' and since everyone has petitions which are peculiar to his circumstances, the regular and appropriate prayer [the Lord's Prayer] is said first, as the foundation of further desires."

2765 The traditional expression "the Lord's Prayer" - oratio Dominica - means that the prayer to our Father is taught and given to us by the Lord Jesus. The prayer that comes to us from Jesus is truly unique: it is "of the Lord." On the one hand, in the words of this prayer the only Son gives us the words the Father gave him: he is the master of our prayer. On the other, as Word incarnate, he knows in his human heart the needs of his human brothers and sisters and reveals them to us: he is the model of our prayer.

2766 But Jesus does not give us a formula to repeat mechanically. As in every vocal prayer, it is through the Word of God that the Holy Spirit teaches the children of God to pray to their Father. Jesus not only gives us the words of our filial prayer; at the same time he gives us the Spirit by whom these words become in us "spirit and life." Even more, the proof and possibility of our filial prayer is that the Father "sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, 'Abba! Father!'" Since our prayer sets forth our desires before God, it is again the Father, "he who searches the hearts of men," who "knows what is the mind of the Spirit, as the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God."

The Gospel of Matthew first shows us how we are to pray...The Lord's Prayer (Matthew 6:9-13)

Each of us may experience times of uncertainty, situations which may challenge us. During such time we never need to be uncertain as to how we might approach God. He gave us the Lord's Prayer.

Thank you for all that you do. Serviam, David

What's going on downstairs, in the elementary building? – 1st-4th Grade

The children have been modeled and are practicing the elements of Responsive Classroom, particularly the morning meeting. Each class is working hard to identify our Hopes and Dreams for the year. Each class is striving to establish a classroom set of Rules and Logical Consequences, specifically crafted to foster spiritual growth, academic excellence, and moral integrity. And, of course, in all of our classrooms, we begin each day with prayers.

The first weeks of school have been spent getting to know each other socially, through activities and games; and, academically, through benchmark assessments and formative inventories. Most classes are almost, if not already ready to buckle down into a routine in the next week or so! As we roll-out this new year, up and down the hallways, one can hear the excited voices of our students, sharing some of the sensational learning going on in their classrooms.

In first grade, one may overhear about the Symbols of America's Pride that we are learning about in social studies, or the butterflies that have burst out of chrysalides, ready to begin their amazing migration.

In second grade, one may notice voices chattering about the small moment stories students are writing during Writer's Workshop, or the animal habitats that the students are learning about in science.

While in third grade, you may hear about Flat Stanley, who is the star of Reader's Workshop. A thrilling tidbit you may not know is that they are integrating this literacy moment with their study of Communities: Rural, Suburban, and Urban. Where will Stanley turn up next?

In fourth grade, the talk is all about personal stories! In Reader's Workshop the students are reading Tales of a 4th Grade Nothing, an exploration of realistic fiction, and from that, students are developing personal narrative stories in Writer's Workshop.

And this is only the beginning! Can you imagine what is yet to come? Clearly, it's shaping up to be an electric year on the first floor!

Great start to the new school year 1st-4th grade!

School Arrival – Tardy Bell

Parent Sign-In – Class Start – Etc.

The multi-purpose room is open and available to students starting at 7:15a.m. Students should not be dropped off at school before 7:15a.m.

At 7:45a.m. the teachers make their way to the MPR to pick-up their respective classes/grades. The 5th-8th students depart first, heading upstairs, with the 1st-4th grade departing afterward, heading down their hallway.

The tardy bell rings at 7:55a.m. Students who arrive after classes have departed the MPR, but before the 7:55a.m. tardy bell rings, should simply go to their classroom. A faculty/staff member in the main entrance area will help inform students if they have arrived prior to or after the ringing of the tardy bell.

Students who are not in their classrooms by the time the tardy bell rings – 7:55a.m. – need to obtain a late pass from the school office. Per our Parent-Student Handbook (Pg. 11) – Students arriving after 7:55a.m. (8:15a.m. for Preschool) are considered late for school and must report to the school office for a late slip. Parents must sign children in at the school office. A parent conference with the principal will be required for excessive student absence (8 per Quarter) and lateness (10 tardies per Quarter = Letter to Family, 15th tardy in a Quarter = conference with principal). Thank you for your attention to and recognition of these school expectations.

Immaculate Conception School Song

From a hill in Hunterdon,
Blessed with beauty by God's hands.
Shines a light for everyone,
Here our alma mater stands.
Jesus shepherd bless our days,
As we grow in wisdom and grace.
Jesus teacher, Jesus friend,
Help us know the Father's plan.

Refrain:

Immaculate Conception School,
Friends are true and journeys bright.
Immaculate Conception School,
Hail our blue and hail our white.

Children of the light are we,
Sons and daughters of the day.

Patron Mother Mary,
Guards our lessons and our play.
Here we learn to serve and share,
Marching on in courage and prayer.
Living hope and charity,
Faith will serve to light our way.

Refrain:

Counselor's Corner – Mrs. Kate Severson

Last Wednesday I had the wonderful opportunity to accompany the 8th grade class on their trip to Camp Bernie. The class was broken down into small groups where they were asked to work together to complete various tasks. Throughout the day, I witnessed students rise to the occasion and become leaders, I saw students supporting each other, cheering, and perhaps most importantly refusing to give up. I was extremely proud of our students and humbled by their ability to work together.

Next week I will be starting Counselor in the Classroom for grades 1-5. I will be focusing on developing a feeling vocabulary. The students will be creating their own book of feelings to help them identify and correlate different emotions through the use of similes. I will also be discussing the power of words and how they impact our days. Please join me in reminding your children that kindness begins with them. I will be working with grades 6-8 beginning in October.

I am very much looking forward to meeting parents at both Back to School nights. I will be available for anyone who may want to chat and share any concerns.
