

SPEAK UP!

Supportive Housing community advocates

Voices for change

A one year training program for tenants of supportive housing to develop leadership skills through monthly group training, one-on-one coaching, and public speaking opportunities.

Program curriculum includes guest speakers with extensive experience in public speaking, storytelling, and advocacy and multiple opportunities for public speaking.

Participants will learn the value of telling their stories to educate and inform local, state, and federal policy makers, as well as the

Sessions start in January
