Dr. Vincent Maida

Cannabinoid Therapies: What's all the buzz about?

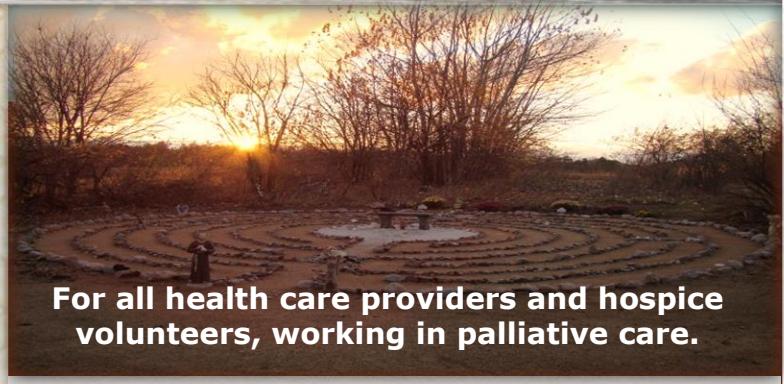

Dr. Maida was born in Toronto and earned a BSc in biochemistry, an MD, and an MSc with a specialty in wound management, from the University of Toronto. He is a Palliative Medicine and Wound Management consultant at the William Osler Health System in Toronto. Dr. Maida is actively involved in clinical research within the spheres of pain and symptom management, prognostication, and wound management.

As a board member for Hospice Vaughan, Dr. Maida cites the building of a Centre of Excellence for Hospice and Palliative Care, with 10 residential beds for the City of Vaughan, as his prime professional objective.

Rachelle McGuire

Grief Matters

Rachelle McGuire is the Director of Bereavement and Supportive Care at Dr. Bob Kemp Hospice. Rachelle holds a master's degree in Thanatology and has spent the last seven years building community based bereavement programs for hospices across Southern Ontario. Rachelle holds a faculty appointment at McMaster University in the department of family medicine, division of palliative care. She is a longitudinal facilitator for professional competencies at the Michael G. DeGroote School of Medicine and a guest lecturer in many of McMaster's undergraduate and graduate programs. Rachelle is a queer-identified woman of North-African & Middle Eastern descent and is a fierce believer that grief is our birthright.

For all health care providers and hospice volunteers, working in palliative care.
