

Everybody has a story to tell.

Share My Story can help you share your story.

Any moment in time is a story. Whether it is about the time you met someone famous, how you started your own business, that special road trip you took, the big game your team won, your annual vacation, or how you and your loved one met and fell in love -- we all have stories, those not only worth sharing with friends, family, current customers and potential clients, but worth remembering.

At Share My Story, we will help you preserve your memories, to pass on from generation to generation. After all, you have a story to tell. We have the words.

You have a story to tell. We have the words.

We offer products and services to help tell, flaunt, and share your story

OUR BASIC PACKAGE

The standard service that comes with your 'Share My Story' feature

What we do for you:

Our team of professional [and, in most cases, award-winning] reporters and writers will interview you and/or others, to help us write your story with quotes and facts.

How we do it:

Depending on where you live, we will either interview you in-person, or over the phone. Each interview can take anywhere between 30-to-60 minutes.

What happens next:

After interviewing you and/or others, your story's writer gets to work. S/He will write your 1,000-to-1,300-word story within one (1) week of the final interview. You will then receive a draft of the story to review. Once you approve the story, our production team readies the final version for you.

What you receive:

- A 1,000-to-1,300-word feature story, written about you or a loved one, about what YOU want it to be about -- be it one event, or a lifetime of events.
- Your story will be written by a professional writer/reporter -- in many cases, a current or former newspaper reporter. [NOTE: Final word-length of story dependent on writer's discretion, based upon topic and interviews].
- A professionally-designed PDF and JPEG of your story, emailed to you, to share via email and online with friends and family.
- Five (5) 11X17 hard-copy glossy prints of your professionally-designed feature story, specially designed, delivered directly to you with FREE SHIPPING. [Perfect for framing and displaying at home or in the office.]
- And five (5) glossy prints of an 8.5 X 11 hard-copy specially designed "Magazine Cover" [see sample above], tailored to your feature story, delivered directly to you with FREE SHIPPING. [Perfect for framing and displaying at home or in the office.]

PERFECT FOR:

- Engaged/Soon-To-Be-Wed Couples • Businesses • Company & Office Retreats • Families • Senior Citizens • Individuals • Clubs & Teams • Couples • Weddings & Parties

BROCHURES / HANDOUTS

Using your finished story [and photos that you provide], our design team will create a four (4)-page 5.5 X 8.5 glossy brochure [see sample on Page. 6] ... the perfect way to share -- and flaunt -- your story with friends and family, at weddings, or parties, or with current customers and potential clients!

SHARE MY STORY SPECIAL EVENTS

For an in-person experience that you and your guests will remember for a lifetime, our "Share My Story" team will create -- and host -- for you your very own "Share My Story" event.

Perfect for engagement parties, weddings, birthday celebrations, assisted living facilities -- whenever and wherever your party, group, or organization/institution wants to have fun while learning about one another and the stories that each of you have to tell and share.

PROFESSIONAL DISPLAY

To better flaunt your story and share your legacy, order a 20 X 16 Metal Print. Your story will be infused on a sleek metal panel, featuring a glossy coating and rounded edges -- making for a gorgeous display for any room in your home or office. [Comes with wall-mounting fixture.]

MEDIA DISTRIBUTION

We will share your story with your hometown news media outlets, including print [newspaper/magazine] editors and writers, and broadcast reporters, directors and/or producers. Please note: Each media outlet is directly responsible for deciding whether to run/not run your story. We guarantee they will receive it. We cannot, however, guarantee press coverage.

ADVERTORIALS

An advertorial is a paid advertisement for a magazine or newspaper, written as a feature story. We will take your Share My Story feature story, negotiate ad placement on your behalf with the publication(s) of your choice, design your Share My Story feature to the appropriate specs of the paid publication, and submit. [This is the only way to guarantee your story will be run.]
