

MUSIC WORKSHOP

.....

Exploring the Power of Singing

Saturday, May 13, 2017

9:00 am – 12 noon

$20 ticket

includes music, workshop and Saturday evening concert

Workshop attendees will have the opportunity to:

- Learn new music
- Sharpen their songwriting skills
- Develop their ability to celebrate life events by capturing them in song
- Learn more about musical improvisation

Workshop & Concert at Middleburg Heights Community UCC

7165 Big Creek Parkway, Middleburg Heights, OH

Space is limited! Reserve your spot today!
Purchase tickets at mhcucc.org/kenmedema

CONCERT

.....

Saturday, May 13, 2017

7:30 pm

Concert only tickets:

$10 in advance, $12 at the door

KEN
M E D E M A

Musician and storyteller, singer, songwriter, pianist, composer, and imaginator. Ken has the extraordinary skill of being able to improvise new songs that he composes in the moment.

Blind since birth, Ken began studying music when he was 8 years old. He studied music therapy, piano and voice performance at Michigan State University. He has worked as a music therapist as well as a performing and recording artist. He performs in a wide variety of venues from local congregations to charity fundraisers, high school and university campuses, globally televised religious programs, and corporate conventions to annual assemblies of national organizations.