A note from our director:

Now that we have most of our assessments out of the way, it is time to dig into goal setting and more importantly, goal achieving. We look forward to designing the Individualized Learning Plans with you! The involvement of the learner and their family is the most crucial element of the I.L.P. Like the great Benjamin Franklin said: Tell me and I forget. Teach me and I remember. Involve me and I learn.

Individualized Learning Plans

It's time for our Fall I.L.P. meetings!

Last week we sent out a FAQ for Fridays at Pacoima. This week we are answering FAQ for our Individualized Learning Plan (I.L.P.) Meetings

- ❖ What is an I.L.P.?
 - I.L.P. stands for Individualized Learning Plan. Every learner at iLEAD has a learning plan designed for their individual needs.
- ❖ Who designs the I.L.P.?
 - iLEAD Staff, the learner's family and most importantly the learner are involved in the design of the plan.
- ❖ What does an I.L.P. include?
 - An I.L.P. can vary greatly from learner to learner, even within the same family. At iLEAD Pacoima every I.L.P. will have a few common factors: an ELA goal, a math goal, and a social emotional goal.
- ❖ Do I have to attend one for each of my learners?
 - Yes, it is crucial that every learner feel like an individual and that their plan reflect their individual needs.
- ❖ Is an I.L.P. the same as a Learner Led Conference (L.L.C)?
 - No, they may feel similar, however an I.L.P. meeting is primarily to establish goals and calibrate expectations. An L.L.C. is for the monitoring of progress towards the goals established in the I.L.P.
