FAQ

When will students perform?

Concerts are scheduled for 5:30 and 7:00PM. Students will be assigned to perform in one of these concerts. Concerts are approximately 60 minutes. Drummers and vocalists will be required to attend a technical rehearsal before their concert and may be required to provide backing tracks. Private lessons will be held on the regular schedule the day of the concert.

What songs will be played?

Students will perform songs they have studied in their private lessons. Songs may be unaccompanied, or with the accompaniment of their teacher or backing tracks.

Where can we buy tickets? Is there a participation fee?

Tickets can be purchased at the door. General admission is $7. Purchases at the door are cash only. Children 11 and younger are free. Performers do not need tickets for shows they are performing in. As stated in our studio policies, receiving confirmation of participation in a Concerts Week is considered a half-hour of private lesson time redeemed. Your account will be charged 30 minutes of instruction time at the time of confirmation to perform. Vocal students may need to book the services of an accompanist. For piano students, an acoustic piano or professional digital keyboard will be provided. Students are to submit availability forms by Wednesday, January 18.

Will photos be taken?

Consistent with our studio policies, photos may be taken by the studio or local press and published for promotional and/or nostalgic purposes. A printed program may be provided including first and last names of students.

Is participation mandatory?

Participation is encouraged, but optional. Mid-Winter Concerts Night is intended for students who did not participate in the Winter Concerts week. The next studio-wide performance events are New Music Concert on Sunday, April 2 and Spring Concerts Week June 4-10.

Sounds great! What are the next steps?
