Membership Dues

RSI Membership Classification

Dues are based on the member global sales revenue. The membership category is selected by the member company based on gross sales to rail transportation or to other suppliers for rail transportation use during the immediate preceding calendar year (ex. if your rail sales/service revenue in 2017 was/will be est. $15 million, you belong to class II-A and pay $6,500.00 in dues for 2018).

Class	Gross Global Rail Related Sales in 2017	RSI Dues Level
I-A	$350 Million +	$25,500.00
I-B	$100 Million – 349.9 Million	$18,500.00
I-C	$50 Million - $99.9 Million	$12,500.00
II-A	$11 Million - $49.0 Million	$ 6,500.00
II-B	$5 Million - $10.9 Million	$ 3,000.00
II-C	$0 Million - $4.9 Million	$ 1,500.00
Special Categories
A	All Railroads	$1,500.00
B	Banks, Law Firms, Industry Publications	$1,500.00

Important: A member company's wholly owned divisions or subsidiaries may be included under the principal company's membership providing that the individual wholly owned divisions or subsidiaries total gross rail sales/service revenue is considered when figuring 2017 RSI dues. RSI dues are not pro-rated and last one calendar year (January – December).

RSI is a not-for-profit incorporated trade association under S501 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code. Hence, 15% of dues are not deductible as a charitable contribution; the remaining percentage of your dues not allocated to federal and state lobbying is deductible as a normal business expense.
