FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

- 1. What is the difference in our time zones?
Israel is seven hours ahead of US Eastern Standard time.
- 2. How much money should I bring?
This is a personal decision. NOT included in your tour cost are: shopping and lunches. Taking a minimum of $500 in cash is recommended.
- 3. What about Tips and Gratuities?
All tips and gratuities are covered in the cost of the tour.
- 4. What type of currency is used?
Israeli Shekels, US currency is also widely accepted. We suggest taking a good supply of small bills -1's, 5's...
- 5. Should I exchange some money before departure?
This is not necessary, but you may feel more comfortable having some local currency before arriving.
- 6. Will the company, or hotel, provide money exchanging services?
All exchanges will need to take place in the airport or at a local bank. Hotels may exchange money into local currency, but may charge a high fee for doing so.
- 7. Will ATM machines be available?
ATM's are available at local banks. The money your receive will be the local currency.
- 8. What about travelers checks and credit cards?
We do not recommend the use of travelers checks as you may experience difficulty using and/or cashing them. In addition, banks usually charge a significant handling fee when cashing travelers checks. Credit cards can be used for most purchases.
- 9. Will US currency be accepted for extra expense?
Yes, generally US currency is accepted for small purchases.
- 10. Will I be able to shop while on tour?
Time will be allotted for shopping. While some will feel that too much time is spent for shopping, others will think it is not enough. Remember that ours is not a shopping tour. Also, any purchases made are at your own risk. We are not responsible for your dissatisfaction with any items purchased.

11. What are US Customs regulations?

A returning US resident is allowed $800 in purchases duty free. Gifts may be mailed to the US duty free, but are limited to $100 per person, per day.

12. What will the weather be like?

While there is no way to predict the weather, we can offer the following November averages:

- Tel Aviv: 64°F
- Jerusalem: 58°F
- Tiberias: 68°F

13. What type of clothes should I bring?

- Leave your valuable jewelry at home
- Layer, layer, layer (you can always shed clothing and leave it on the bus)
- Hat, scarf, light-weight gloves
- A warm jacket or coat
- Bathing suit and flip-flops, if you will be taking a dip in the Dead Sea (a must if you have never experienced the saltiest water on earth at the lowest place on earth)
- THE MOST COMFORTABLE PAIR OF WALKING SHOES YOU OWN!

14. Are there any other essentials I should bring?

- Compact Bible
- Camera (with spare batteries)
- AC adapter
- Sunglasses
- Sunscreen
- Portable umbrella and light-weight, rain proof wind breaker
- Hand sanitizer, wet wipes, small packets of Kleenex
- Extra supply of ALL essential prescription medications.
- Items to help you rest/sleep on transatlantic flight (e.g., eye mask; neck pillow, ear plugs, extra socks)
- Chest pouch for $$, passport or credit cards.
- Copy of your passport to place within your luggage

15. Should I bring my prescription medicines?

Bring your medicine in the original bottle. Also bring a copy of the generic names for each.

16. What if I lose something on the tour?

Leave valuables, including items of sentimental value, at home! Double-check your belongings before leaving the plane, hotels and buses. We cannot assume responsibility for lost items.

17. I've heard a lot about prepaid phone cards. –What's your advice?

If you decide to purchase phone cards here or overseas, remember to acquire one that has an access code for Israel. Make sure your card is for international use. Please note that in some cases an additional fee may be charged for using the card from your hotel room. Also, not all hotels have public phones that accept phone cards. If you intend to use a cell phone during your trip, check with your local provider for International Service capabilities and fees. I SUGGEST TURNING OFF DATA ON YOUR CELL PHONE UPON LEAVING NEWARK! These charges can really add up when in Israel.
