Keynote Speaker: Bill Dunlap

William Dunlap has distinguished himself as an artist, arts commentator and educator, during a career that has spanned more than three decades. His paintings, sculpture and constructions are included in prestigious collections, such as the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Lauren Rogers Museum, Rogers Ogden Collection, Arkansas Art Center, and United States Embassies throughout the world. He has had solo exhibitions at the Corcoran Gallery of Art, National Academy of Science, Aspen Museum of Art, Southeastern Center for Contemporary Art, Mississippi Museum of Art, Contemporary Art Center in New Orleans, to name but a few.

Honored in his field, Mr. Dunlap has received awards and fellowships from the Rockefeller Foundation, the Lila Wallace/Reader's Digest Foundation for study and travel in Southeast Asia, Warhol Foundation, Virginia Commission for the Arts, Mississippi Institute of Arts and Letters, Southeastern Center for Contemporary Art/RJR Nabisco Visual Artists Award, and the Mississippi Governor's Award for Excellence in the Arts. He is an inspired speaker and has lectured on art related subjects at colleges, universities, institutions and professional conferences. He serves as arts commentator on WETA-TV's cultural round table show, "Around Town." William Dunlap has an M.F.A. from the University of Mississippi, and taught at Appalachian State University in North Carolina (1970-79) and Memphis State University (1979-80.) He currently maintains studios in McLean, Virginia; Mathiston, Mississippi and Coral Gables, Florida.

Professional Development in the Studio

Thursday, November 10, 2016

Mississippi Museum of Art

We are again offering three concentrations for the Thursday session of the 2016 MAEA Fall Conference. Each of these sessions will last five hours on Thursday and will cost $50. You must register for the conference in order to enroll and attend one of these studio concentrations.

Mixed Media

Come join our featured speaker for an insightful look into his creative process. Participants will create works with Dunlap that explore a Sense of Place. Limit 15 participants.

Photography

Justin Reeves is a noted area photographer and art educator who strives to bring real-world applicable information and insight to his classroom. Participants will create fabulous photographs and learn techniques to take back to their own classrooms. A digital camera or smartphone is required, and a laptop for editing is preferred. Limit 15 participants.

Batik

Veteran teacher Vicky Miley will facilitate this centuries old process using a wax resist process on fabric. Create your own batik with dyes and jaunting tools in this workshop and gain strategies to implement the processes into your own classroom. Limit 15 participants.

Registration Information

Conference fees include Friday and Saturday sessions, art supplies needed for the sessions, conference t-shirt or tote bag, coffee and muffins Friday morning, dinner Friday evening, and lunch on Saturday. The Thursday studio concentrations are an additional $50 which includes some art supplies. All sessions are specifically geared to help Visual Arts teachers strengthen their teaching practices and show connections to the Visual Arts Standards as well as give teachers opportunities to reflect, problem solve, and share new ideas and experiences. Up to 2 CEUs or 20 contact hours are available during this professional development conference.

Active Member $115

Retired Member $105

Student Member $75

Non-Member $145

Late Registration $20 added after October 15

Thursday Studio Art Concentrations $50

Regular registration ends October 15. All registration fees must be paid before session choices can be made. You can receive a full refund until October 31st. No refunds after November 1st when t-shirts, supplies, and food are ordered. Register early to ensure a spot in the Thursday Studio Art Concentration of your choice. Registration links will be emailed and posted on the MAEA Facebook page and website.

Member Exhibition

This year we are having a member exhibition in the Tougaloo Galleries. This is a great opportunity for our members to be recognized not only as art educators but also as practicing artists. Bring 1-2 artworks ready to hang with you to registration. The works will hang in this member exhibition Friday and Saturday November 11-12. A panel of judges will select awards and present them at the reception Friday evening. Members must pick up their works between 3-5 pm on Saturday. This exhibition will look great on your resume!

Friday Evening Event

Join us for the Member Exhibition reception at the Benne Thompson gallery at Tougaloo College. This is a “creative” formal event and a great opportunity to wear your Mona Lisa tie, tacky bridesmaid dress, duct tape suit, or best thrift shop find! Prizes for the most creative and the tackiest outfit will be given. This event will be catered by Thompson Hospitality.

We dug through old Facebook posts to find these MAEA members in creative formal attire:

Dr. Randy and Vicky Miley at the 2014 NAEA Convention dressed for Mardi Gras

Summer Nation and Rebecca Wilkinson at the 2012 MAEA Fall Conference dressed as literary figures

This year members get a choice of a tshirt or tote bag featuring Gin Dog by Bill Dunlap
