

SELF-ADVOCACY WORKSHOP FOR FEMALE TEENS & YOUNG ADULTS

The target registrant for this workshop is a female teen or young adult with or without a learning disability that has a desire to learn more about self-advocacy in her daily environment.

WHERE:

Danbury Library
Lower Level Meeting Room

WHEN:

Sessions 1:
Thursday, April 26th
4:45 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Sessions 2:
Thursday, May 3rd
4:45 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Registrants must attend both sessions. You may request to be put on waiting list if cannot meet this requirement.

To register email: advocate@wecahr.org or call (203) 792-3540

Workshop will fill up quickly, so reserve your spot TODAY!

No walk-ins allowed for this workshop.

WeCAHR is a non-profit special education & disability advocacy organization, serving the greater Danbury area since 1977.

Visit us at www.wecahr.org to learn more about our services.

Made possible in part by:
Fairfield County's Community Foundation.

FEATURED PRESENTERS:

WOMEN'S CENTER OF GREATER
DANBURY &
DANBURY POLICE DEPARTMENT

HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS

SAFETY

SELF-CARE

SELF-ADVOCACY IN SCHOOL & WORK

RESPONSIBLE
SOCIAL MEDIA

