

November Monthly Training

Mentoring is often described as a journey, a process of creating a meaningful bond. Seedling mentors know this can be filled with wonderful starts, unexpected stops and puzzling detours. To keep you well fueled and ready for the next challenge, our monthly mentor trainings aim to provide you with the tools and resources necessary, to keep you going strong.

Watch your calendar for the November 30th lunchtime training:

Mentoring Children of Color and
How to Support Positive Identity Development

Wednesday, November 30th

11:30a.m. - 12:30p.m.

Carver Branch, Austin Public Library