

While saying farewell to your mentee may not be planned for the near future, it is important to ensure that the same kindness given at the beginning of the relationship is fostered at the close.

Mark your calendar for April 19th and plan to attend our final training of the school year:

Mentoring and Saying Goodbye
Understanding the Process of Healthy Closure

Invitation and details will be emailed later this week!