2019 Winter Quarter Credit Courses

Fundamentals of Music!

This truly is a Music 101! Join us for an introductory class on the basics of notation, keys and key signatures, scales, chords, harmony and composition. This is an excellent starting place for anyone interested in learning more about why music sounds and works the way it does, from church choir singers to future professional composers. Through this course, students will apply their learning through ear training, sight reading and compositional exercises in a relaxed, fun (sometimes maybe even silly) and supportive environment.

Instructor Matthew Melendez Blegen / 5 credits / MWF / Jan 2-Mar 8

Non-Profit Leadership Certification

Interested in learning more about Leadership in Nonprofit Organizations?

The certificate is designed to provide students information leading to better understanding of the philosophical and organizational underpinnings of a non-profit organization. The certificate covers the critical cornerstones that build and sustain a successful nonprofit enterprise. Winter 2019 the courses include Introduction to Non-Profit Leadership and Introduction to Organizational Ethics. Spring 2019 will focus on an Introduction to Grant Writing. This three course certificate is a great foundation for the aspiring Non Profit Leader!

Instructor Gina Blanchard-Reed / 3 credits / Fridays—9am—4pm / Jan 4 / Feb 1 Shelton Campus - Jan 18 / Feb 22 Bremerton Campus

Yoga Certification

Find out why almost 37 million Americans practice Yoga. You will be introduced to the physical, mental and emotional benefits of one of the fastest growing practices. Learn Yoga poses and philosophy that will help you develop a personal routine for improved health and well-being. This 2 credit course can also be audited and the cost is a great deal, about $10 per class.

Instructor Karen Lee / 2 credits / T / TH / 5:30-7:30pm / Jan 2-Mar 8

Nursing Assistant Program

Olympic College's Nursing Assistant Program prepares graduates to begin a career that is invaluable to the individuals they serve. Whether they choose to work in acute, long-term, or home care settings, Olympic College's Nursing Assistant Program prepares students to be confident, competent, and compassionate members of the nursing team, assisting registered or licensed practical nurses in providing basic nursing care for clients. Classes are geared toward developing basic academic skills in an applied work setting. Training includes learning and refining client care skills, clinical observation, and performing skills in a supervised clinical setting. Instruction and resources are provided to promote successful job placement. Program Director Beth Gill / Arranged / 5 courses / 13 credits / Jan 2—Mar 8
