(Christianity) became, through the intervening years, a religion of the powerful and the dominant, used sometimes as an instrument of oppression, must not tempt us into believing that it was thus in the mind and life of Jesus....Wherever his spirit appears, the oppressed gather fresh courage; for he announced the good news that fear, hypocrisy, and hatred, the three hounds of hell that track the trail of the disinherited, need have no dominion over them." -Howard Thurman

When Spiders unite they can tie down a lion. —Ethiopian Proverb

God would prefer us all to be united than divided. The devil would prefer us all to be divided than united. God prefers the man who loves than the one who hates. The devil prefers the man who hates than the one who loves." -Suzy Kassem

CALL TO WORSHIP (Responsive)

Pastor Scott

Fifty five years ago a preacher stood over the Reflective Pool speaking to a people long suffering proclaiming a God given vision and dream for racial equality in the United States of America.

A dream that is still yet unfulfilled...

Generations have changed, so may have the ways in which prejudices and bigotry are shaped, but we recognize them, and name them as they wound and crush the spirits of brothers and sisters of color by diminishing who they have been created to be in the image of a color FULL God!

Give us eyes to see and ears to hear. Open us to the pain and heartache of our neighbors who continue to struggle and strive for equality. Holy Spirit forge us for work towards the dignity and unity of each person, fueled by the love of Christ from which we all are fashioned and made.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Presentation Synopsis:

In short, my presentation/speech will be a message of encouragement intended to motivate your church community to be ambassadors of peace and love to the world. Framed within the teachings of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., and inspired by the Holy Spirit, I highlight some of the many injustices in our society today and identify what each of us can do to fight for a more equal and just society. I aim to challenge your congregation to do more, be better, and always be considerate of the plight of others.

On January 18, 2018, faith leaders from around the country will join together for National Day of Fasting and Witness in protest of Wendy's executives' ongoing and unconscionable refusal to join the Fair Food Program. Following what's sure to be an exciting fall season in the Wendy's campaign (with a major march to the New York City offices of Board Chair Nelson Peltz coming up on November 20!), this mobilization will galvanize faith communities nationwide into action – both in commemoration of the great strides that have been made over the course of our decades-long struggle for justice in the fields, and in advancement of the urgent campaign to bring Wendy's into the Fair Food fold.. Please consider a fast along with CIW on January 18th to bring awareness with them.

Chancel Flowers: Did you know that the flowers displayed on the Chancel are donated by church members? Everyone is invited to donate flowers in joy, celebration or remembrance of a loved one. The cost to donate is $35.00 and there is a sign up calendar on the bulletin board on the Sanctuary level, south entrance. When you donate a floral arrangement you are encouraged to take it home with you following service so that you may enjoy its purpose. We do ask, however that you return the vase so that we can recycle them with the florist. Any questions, please see Linda Schranz or Barb Hammack.
