Without Pentecost the Christ –event-the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus- reamins imprisoned in history as something to remember, think about and reflect on. The Spirit of Jesus comes to dwell within us, so that we can become living Christs here and now. –Henri Nouwen

Our task, as image-bearing, God-loving, Christ-shaped, Spirit-filled Christians, following Christ and shaping our world, is to announce redemption to the world that has discovered its fallenness, to announce healing to the world that has discovered its brokenness, and to proclaim love and trust to the world that knows only exploitation, fear and suspicion -N.T. Wright

Christian faith is not a religion of beliefs that we simply adhere to, it is a way of living that we breathe, walk, and share with God's grace and every ounce of our being. It's not a part of our life, it is the love of God that claims every inch of who we are and who we hope to be. -Pastor Scott

Pastor Scott

Today we celebrate Pentecost, the birth of the church, and the good news of God's love made known to every people and every tongue.

Thanks be to God.

We also celebrate those who confirm their faith and their desire to follow You this day. We ask Your blessing and courage to these young men and women who have decided to take the faith shared by their parents and church family as their own.

Bless these confirmands and us as a church family as we do all that we can to be Your disciples through our words and our actions. Amen.

CHILDREN'S SONG

Jesus Loves Me (1st Verse)

CHILDREN'S MESSAGE

Pastor Scott

The Lord's Prayer (read in unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

CHILDREN'S SONG Jesus Loves Me (2nd verse)

Jesus loves me still today,
Walking with me on my way,
Wanting as a friend to give,
Light and love to all who live.

Children are dismissed to their Sunday School rooms.

CONFIRMATION OF FAITH

2018 CONFIRMANDS: *Jack Ryan Gales, Eleanor Jennifer Harris, Rori Elisabeth Mullen, Leah Eileen Purcell, Paige Marie Purcell, * Sophia Kathleen Harris, * Reece David Victor Luco choosing not to be confirmed at this time, but a huge part of our class together and our confirmation family.

Questions to the Confirmands

(Tom Ruschke) Your parents and grandparents passed this faith on to you. In many cases they baptized you as infants, making the promises of faith on your behalf. But now you are older, and the choice to enter into a life long relationship with God through Jesus becomes your decision. Each of you has studied the Christian faith, you have also learned about the different teachings and traditions of worship throughout the church and in other faith traditions. You have worked to understand what confirming belief in Jesus as Lord and Savior of your lives means and what it may cost you to follow Jesus in your life as a disciple. Is it your desire to continue in a life long relationship with Jesus the Christ? If this is your desire this day – please respond:

Confirmands: I will with God's help and guidance.

(Joann Purcell) You have also learned what it is to be the church, not as a building but as a people. Each of you possesses different talents, gifts, and personalities that help make the church the people it is.

You have learned and seen the power of God at work among you. Together we share our lives and our faith in knowing that we do not take this journey alone. Is it your desire to be an active and visible part of First Congregational United Church of Christ? Will you live your faith as best as you are able to be an ambassador for Jesus that others might see Jesus visible in you?

Confirmands: I will try, with all that I am, to reflect the life of Jesus in my life.

(Pastor Scott) The life and teachings of Jesus are not easy to follow. This walk with God will require much of you. It will require faith, courage, and dedicating yourselves to the movements of God's Spirit in your life. Is it your desire this day to open your whole life to God so that those who know you might see your life and know that God is at the heart of who you are, who you seek to be and what you stand for?

Confirmands: It is. I will seek to follow God with everything that I have.

(Lindsey Rensch) Confirmation is not an ending point but rather a beginning, an equipping for a life-long journey with God. It is not about a "religion" practiced for an hour on Sunday, but a daily way of choosing to live that puts Jesus and God's kingdom first above every other relationship we have.

We recognize today that none of us is perfect. There will be detours along the way; moments when we make mistakes and lose our way. There will be times when life gets complicated and faith is stretched to its limits. But we also recognize, as you confirm the blessings of your baptism, that it is God who remains always faithful in God's promises to us. Trust in God's grace, lead with compassion and mercy just as you have found love and grace in God.

ALL: By the grace of God we have come this far. It is God who will sustain us and God's grace that will guide and lead us.

(Megan Ruschke) And now because of the work and commitment you have each made, preparing yourselves for a life of discipleship, we will ask each of you to come forward individually to receive your church family's blessing, prayers, and to pray for God's Holy Spirit to be with you and guide you in your journey of faith.
