CLOSE WASN'T GOOD ENOUGH

The Miami FC played its first match at home last week, taking on the New York Cosmos.

The first half saw the Miami FC nearly score three times. The club's best chance came just as the first half ended when Vincenzo Rennella played a perfect pass to Stéfano Pinho whose point-blank shot ricocheted of the near post. In the 53rd minute the Miami FC would once again create a great chance only to be denied by the post. Robert Baggio Kcira hit a powerful shot that forced the Cosmos' keeper to make a save with Poku's rebound shot hitting the post.

After the final whistle the Miami FC had fallen to New York 2-0.

FINISHING IS EVERYTHING

North Carolina FC hosted struggling FC Edmonton last Saturday.

NCFC came away with a dominant 3-1 victory in what, on paper, looked like an evenly matched contest.

North Carolina had built a massive 3-0 lead after just 48 minutes, thanks to goals from Lance Laing, Nazmi Albadawi and Matt Fondy.

FC Edmonton would net a goal late in the match but NCFC walked away with three points and a 3-1 victory.

MATCH NOTES

AS CLOSE AS IT GETS

The Miami FC and NCFC have faced off four times and only one goal separates the two clubs in the overall series. The four clashes produced three draws, one win and nine goals.

The two sides opened the 2017 season against each other with a match played in Cary, N.C. A typical hard-fought match played out on the field adding another dead-lock to the series. NCFC scored just four minutes into the match, but midfielder Poku would net the equalizer in the 13th minute.

The Orange and Blue own the only victory in the series, taking down North Carolina FC at Riccardo Silva Stadium late last season, 1-0.

Former striker Dario Cvitanich subbed into the match in the 76th minute and seconds later pounced on a loose ball at the top of the North Carolina box and hit the game winner.

SUCCESSFULLY BURNING THE CANDLE ON BOTH ENDS

The Miami FC has been one of the best offenses in the league this season with great passing and continuity leading to great scoring opportunities.

Miami leads the NASL in total shots this season, taking 45 in just three matches. The club has also put 17 on target, tied for the best mark in the league. All these chances have led to four goals, one off the league high.

Tomorrow's opponent also features a potent offense. NCFC have taken 37 shots this season, put 17 on target and netted an NASL-best five goals in 2017. North Carolina's offensive efforts had not paid off till last week, when it netted three goals against FC Edmonton for the club's first victory of the season

The Orange and Blue own one of the stingiest defenses in the league after three matches. Opposing teams have only been able to put seven shots on goal and score two goals from the run of play. Only the Jacksonville Armada have been better on defense, allowing six shots on goal while keeping three clean sheets.

MIAMI FC PLAYERS TO WATCH

Vincenzo Rennella: Rennella has been a dynamite up front for the Miami FC.

Through three matches, he has taken a team-high seven shots and four on target. Rennella has also completed 75% of his passes and created two scoring chances.

Last match marked Rennella's first start and he took full advantage of it. In 90 blistering minutes, he fired five shots, two on target and created two other scoring opportunities, including one that lead to a point blank shot that hit the post.

Rennella joined the Miami FC late in 2016 and made an instant impact, scoring three goals for the Orange and Blue as the club pushed for a spot in the playoffs.

Richie Ryan: Ryan is the unsung engine of the Miami FC offense. The Irish veteran acts as the initiator for every attack and the safety valve for his teammates when they are under pressure.

Ryan has played all 270 minutes of the 2017 season. He has completed 161 passes at an 88% clip, while creating four scoring chances.

Last week, he completed 42 of his 47 passes, created a chance and won five duels in the midfield.

Ryan came to the Miami FC early on in the 2016 season and helped lead the club's second half turnaround.

NEWS

TEAMWORK MAKES THE DREAM WORK

The crux of the Miami FC's success this season has been its proficient passing.

Miami FC players currently occupy five spots on the NASL's top 10 total passes list, with Hunter Freeman's 209 ranking third and .

This great passing has also lead to 38 scoring chances for the Orange and Blue.

Poku leads the team in chances created with eight, with Dylan Mares close behind with seven. They currently rank third and fourth, respectively, in the NASL.

UP NEXT

The Miami FC closes out a three-match homestand next week.

The Orange and Blue hosts FC Edmonton for the first time in 2017 at Riccardo Silva Stadium on April 29.

The Miami FC has a great track record against FC Edmonton, winning all three matches against the Canadian club last season.

Two of those win came at home, including the club's first-ever win and in the final match of the 2016 season.

Next week sees the club head to Puerto Rico for a match against Puerto Rico FC.

MIAMI FC TECHNICAL STAFF

ALESSANDRO NESTA HEAD COACH

Widely considered to be one of the greatest defenders ever, Nesta made over 400 Serie A appearances in a 20-year career.

Nesta was a member of the Italian national side for a decade from his debut in 1996, earning 78 caps in total. He competed in three FIFA World Cups, including the team that won the 2006 World Cup in Germany.

In his first season leading the Miami FC, Nesta's squad compiled a 10-10-12 record. After a slow start to the season, Nesta righted the ship in the Fall season as the club fought for a playoff spot till the final day of the season.
