LITTLE ROCK, Ark. – Little Rock Marathon race officials announced today that registration for the Little Rockers Kids Marathon, presented by the Hatcher Agency, will open on Fri., Aug. 31, 2018.

The Little Rockers Kids Marathon is a family-friendly event to be held March 2, 2019 at 11 a.m. The Little Rockers Kids Marathon is a project of Little Rock Parks & Recreation and is part of Little Rock Marathon Weekend, which is presented by the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette.

The mission of the Little Rockers Kids Marathon is to provide children in 1st through 6th grades the opportunity to enhance their physical activity while focusing on reaching a goal. Participants improve their fitness level by following a fun, simple running and/or walking program.

Since 2004, more than 76,000 children have logged an estimated 1,991,000 miles in the Little Rockers Kids Marathon Training Program. Nearly 25,000 children from every county in Arkansas and 27 different states have participated in the Final Mile at the Little Rockers Kids Marathon.

“Participants run or walk at least 25.2 miles at their own pace over an extended period of time,” said Leah Pearce, Little Rockers chair. “On race day they finish their last mile on the official Little Rock Marathon course. As each child crosses the finish line, they receive their official finisher’s medal.”

“We hope to motivate children to commit to a physical routine,” said Pearce. “We believe it shows them the overall benefits of achieving their goals, not only when they cross the finish line, but in life as well.”
