

RAFFLE NEWS UPDATES & RAFFLE RULES-INFORMATION

These are RAFFLES, not auctions. Everyone with a ticket has a chance to win. Last year, the NOCF set a goal of raising $50K with the 2017 Summer Raffles, and you met it! This year - with what Dave Taylor describes as “arguably the best collection of offerings we’ve had so far” - we are hoping you will smash our $60K summer goal. Though the excitement is surely about owning any one or more of the 22 lots in this raffle, the actual result is in the world’s acknowledgment of this community through powerful and significant contributions.

Here are some important things to note about how the NOCF raffles work:

- Tickets can be purchased from ANYWHERE in the world via the website (novaopenfoundation.org). Sales will close at 12:00 noon on Sunday, September 2, 2018.
- The drawings will take place, and winners announced, at NOVA Open 2018 on September 2 – but you do not have to be present at NOVA Open to win. NOCF will ship anywhere in the world with a valid mailing address.
- Winners will be contacted directly, via the email associated with their PayPal receipt, no later than 9/5/2018. The email will arrive from novacharites@gmail.com.
- Tickets are either $2 or $5; they may or may not be limited. Checkout requires a minimum $10 sale. This minimum ensures that the maximum percentage of each ticket purchased will benefit the designated charitable cause.
- No members of the NOVA Open Charitable Foundation, Inc., Board of Directors, and no member of the NOVA Open Executive Committee, are eligible to win. NOCF artists are eligible to win any item other than those they worked on.
