

VOCOLOT

Legendary A Capella Ensemble Reunites

Produced by Dan Siegel, who has produced over forty Jewish music concerts for his Cozy Concerts series, the Jewish Music Festival, and Congregation Netivot Shalom. Dan also plays trombone in the Netivot Shalom Jazzkleztet and Albany Jazz Band.

Date: Saturday, April 28
Time: 7:30 PM; Doors open at 7 PM
Fee: Concert & Dessert, $25
Location: JCC East Bay Berkeley Branch

After a hiatus of five years, the a cappella group Vocolot is gathering together for a rare concert appearance featuring both original songs and songs of Jewish heritage from around the world in Hebrew, Yiddish, English, and Arabic.

Their music, rooted in universal heart, social conscience and Jewish soul, communicates a powerful vision of world peace and reconciliation. This performance features Cantor Linda Hirschhorn, singer/percussionist Liz Stuart, and singers Talia Cooper and Jennifer Karno. There will also be guest appearances by former Vocolot members.

REGISTER! www.jcceastbay.org/arts-and-culture/
510.848.0237, ext. 142 • rachel.whittom@jcceastbay.org