- An enormous thank you to Lee Wawiorka, Store Director at the 64th Street HyVee for generously donating $350 towards the cost of our dinner and supplies. *Please be sure to patronize this HyVee as they have helped the Auxiliary and the Post a lot this year.

A reminder that we providing items for ladies and gentlemen in the VA Hospital: tote bags for the ladies for Mother's Day, and socks for the men for Father's Day. Socks should be of the diabetic type. The Auxiliary has tote bags for members to decorate. Donations of "diabetic socks" would be greatly appreciated. Please contact Linda Eckerle at 816.805.0741 for any questions or if you can donate.

May 24th is our meeting where the new officers will be installed, come out and join the activity. Memorial Day weekend we will be distributing "Buddy" poppies.

June 14-17 is the Department (State) Convention to be held in Springfield, Missouri. All is invited to watch us be capped as Commander and Quartermaster of the "All State" team.

The June 28th meeting is when the new elected officers take command of our Post

July 4th we will again participate with a float at the Parkville Parade.

July 21-25 is the VFW National Convention, right here in Kansas City. We have been honored to host a special dinner on July 23rd for approximately 75 VFW members to include three past Commander-in-Chiefs. We are working on plans to provide a Kansas City Style Bar-b-que dinner. We will need help with this planning to include transportation for the group from downtown to the Post and back. If interested in helping contact Tara.

We have a great chance to achieving "All American" again this year but obtaining the "All America" Post honors will be tight. As we understand it, we have to achieve 100% plus 5% new or reinstate. Thus, we will need 23 current Annual members to pay their dues before the cut-off date of May 31st. If you're dues are due in May, June or July, renewing your dues a few months early would be greatly appreciated by all! Upgrading to Life Member eliminates this annual need. Don't forget to recruit new members as well.

Then August is our 7th Annual Golf Tournament. Plenty of things to do and become active.

See ya all at the Commanders Call on April 12th 6:00 p.m.

Jeff Fox
Post Commander, 7356

Customers' protests bring high-capacity ammo magazines back to AAFES shelves

After a vocal response from customers, the Army and Air Force Exchange Service will begin restocking its shelves with high-capacity ammunition magazines — reversing a policy to stop selling magazines that hold 11 or more rounds. Exchange officials reversed their firearm policy based on input from customers, according to a statement from AAFES.

“Feedback from active-duty, Guard and Reserve soldiers and airmen highlighted the criticality of high-capacity magazines as it relates to readiness and proficiency,” officials stated. The stores — including the online store — stopped selling high-capacity magazines at the beginning of March. In less than 10 days, AAFES had reversed the decision and began making plans to get the products back on the shelves.
