You will be informed upon approval of this application. Scholarships are awarded on a case by case basis. Although we cannot award scholarships to all applicants, we will try to assist as many children as we can in the registration for this program. Please only apply for this scholarship if there is a significant financial need. The NACC will award scholarships based on financial need and demonstration of child's interest in the arts in the description above. Potential scholarship recipients, guardians and children, may be required to have an interview with the Camp Director before receiving any award. The deadline for this application is June 26th, 2017.
