

Bio for JOHN R. SCHUELER

John Schueler has been in the media industry for over 45 years, 25 of which has been at the publisher, president and CEO level. He has also chaired economic development organizations, including holding the position of the Executive Director of Corporate Development at the University of South Florida.

John has served as chair of United Way Capital Campaigns and Chairman of the Board for five years at the American Heart Association Tampa Bay. He has also served on advisory councils for law firms and state-wide (Florida, Minneapolis and California) economic development organizations.

In 2011, he co-founded the Tampa Bay Defense Alliance –“Champions of the Defense Community”. As president, he secured over $1M for the organization to raise/secure $100M for MacDill AFB, Halley VA and “My MacDill – Operation Embrace”.

Born in Michigan, John holds degrees from Western Michigan University and Stanford University. John has been married to the fabulous Linda for 38 years. They have two daughters and five grandkids.