

The Gifts Compass Certification Training

A COMPREHENSIVE STUDY OF JUNG'S ORIGINAL PSYCHOLOGICAL TYPES

THE BOOKS

THE FILMS

This ten-session online training thoroughly reviews Jung's original eight psychological types and their connection to depth psychology. The focus is type dynamics, both conscious and unconscious, rather than type classifications. We return to understanding the types as a compass, useful for navigating the realization of unique personality.

I would not for anything dispense with this compass on my psychological voyages of discovery. C. G. Jung

Because the training is online, it is often international. Yet you never need to travel further than your own computer. Meet colleagues from other countries in the comfort of your own home or office. We keep the training groups small, to allow for ample dialogue.

What Trainees are saying:

"The GCI training has been an enriching experience not only for allowing me to work in depth with the Jungian theory of types, but to also practice it and to apply it in a very warm and creative space." Jungian Analyst

". . . It allowed me to go further in my ability to help my clients deepen their human development. I confidently recommend this course to people and professionals who want to learn more about themselves and those with whom they interact." Life Coach

"The Gifts Compass training has provided a well-grounded understanding of Jung's type model, and illustrated how understanding the types is profoundly important for personal growth and transformation. I recommend this training to anyone who wants to go deeper." Organizational development consultant

I very much enjoyed the regular online meetings and opportunity to discuss the theory and application of typology and the GCI. I also enjoyed a variety of expert lecturers. Having Murray Stein deliver the final section was a gift. I also appreciated the availability and support of the instructors and James Johnson. The use of movies was effective as a discussion prompt and case study. Transpersonal psychologist

The training has been very rich and has exceeded my expectations. Adlerian psychologist

I had never really learned Jung's typology properly, and had an erroneous and superficial grasp of it. I realized as well that I had picked up quite a bit of misuse of the typology in my Jungian training. The elaborations of the typology resolves a lot of the problems my colleagues and I had in trying to apply it. I loved sessions 5 and 6, as well as the Reading the Melody practicums. They're great! Jungian Analyst

I especially liked the discussion and particularly the discussions of the movies. Career Counselor

I most enjoyed learning how to use the Gift Compass and modeling of the reading the melody by the facilitators and peers. I was also intrigued with the Discover your Passion Tool. I have enjoyed the discussion with peers and facilitators . . . , particularly in analyzing the movies or addressing some of Jung's theoretical concepts. Educator, Jungian analyst in training

I found every faculty member very relatable, warm and responsive. Also, I feel that a generous amount of time and energy were given to the questions that kept cropping up for me. I liked the practicums, the chance to try out our understanding about using the Inventory. I liked having a variety of faculty members, each with their own particular sensibility, and having a number of different presenters. I very much enjoyed James' book. It was very accessible and interestingly written. . . . Having trained as a Jungian analyst, and having sat through a number of lectures and seminars on typology, I always felt I never could really grasp the subject; when colleagues and I tried to put it into practice, we were confronted with too many contradictions. This is the first time that I feel I understand Jung's model. Jungian analyst in training

I enjoyed the sessions, the discussions and the discoveries, the availability and care of the hosts. Feng shui consultant

"I enjoy the depth and richness of the content. The practical learning on how to "read the melody" has also been great. The interaction and direct learning from instructors and cohort are also beneficial. Small class sizes are much appreciated." Personal Coach

The Gifts Compass Inventory (GCI)

The Gifts Compass Inventory™ (GCI) is an online self-awareness instrument that helps navigate personal transformation toward one's full and unique potential. The GCI reports a person's graduated preferences for each of C. G. Jung's original eight psychological types.

The GCI affirms the value of unique individuality while it helps to explain one's orientation to life experience. With the guidance of a trained advisor, it opens new possibilities and pathways for personal growth. It helps people orient to optimal career paths, understand preferred learning styles, and gain confidence about personal strengths.

Content and construct validities have been scrupulously analyzed and successfully confirmed by experts in Jung's psychological types and statistical analysis. The GCI is congruent with Jung's original eight types.

A 15-page GCI Personal Profile provides direct, easily understood language for clients. The profile includes a compass diagram organized by key themes: Introversion/Extraversion, Orientation, Headings, and Gifts (types).

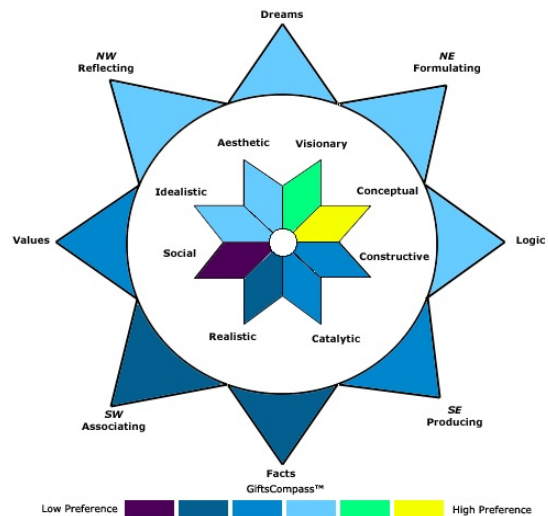

A 36-page GCI Advisor Report provides in-depth information for trained GCI Advisors. It includes advisor alerts, a thorough review of dominant and auxiliary types, and a discussion of the "shadow type"—the least developed type, yet the one that plays a leading role as a catalyst for personal growth.

Training in Jung's types and the use of the GCI is delivered by a an international faculty of Jungian analysts and experts in psychological type. The training is online, with full video-conferencing, so people from all parts of the world can be in the training "room" at the same time.

The GCI is available online at www.GiftsCompass.com Two other instruments are also available at the web site: Discover Your Passion helps to refine one's life direction and the Job Profile helps to match one's gifts with particular work.

We would like to hear from you! Please let us know if we can answer any questions or concerns you might have about the GCI, or our certification training. You can reach us at this email address: info@giftscompass.com

People often ask me, "now is So-and-So not a thinking type? I say, "I never thought about it," and I did not. It is no use at all putting people into drawers with different labels. —C. G. Jung
