

St. Agnes Catholic Church
And
The Florida Medical Association
Present
Physician-assisted Suicide...? Breakfast Lecture

*F. Michael Gloth, III, MD
Interlocutor, Reverend Michael P. Orsi*

White Mass at St. Agnes Church
8:30 and
Breakfast and Lecture at St. Agnes Parish Center
9:30 am (immediately after Mass)
October 18, 2017

Educational Objectives:

By the end of this presentation, the participants should be able to:

- Discuss progress of hospice/palliative care.
- Describe medical limitations of care.
- Inform about Physician-Assisted Suicide and future considerations for end-of-life care.

The planners and speakers for this activity disclosed no financial relationships with commercial interests whose products or services have a direct bearing on the subject matter of these presentations.

Target Audience:

All interested healthcare professionals.

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education through the joint providership of the Florida Medical Association and St. Agnes Catholic Church. The Florida Medical Association is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The Florida Medical Association designates this live activity for a maximum of one (1.0) AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Disclosure of the Florida Medical Association:

It is the policy of the Florida Medical Association (FMA) to ensure independence, objectivity and scientific rigor in all approved CME content. CME faculty must present evidence-based data, clarify off-label product use and disclose all relevant financial relationships to the audience. The ideas and opinions expressed during jointly provided events do not necessarily reflect those of the FMA, and the FMA's approval of course content for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ does not constitute an endorsement of the ideas, positions or statements contained therein. Every effort has been made to ensure that all information provided by the joint provider is accurate and current. However, FMA does not accept responsibility for errors or omissions and accepts no liability for any resulting loss or damage. Attendees agree to participate in this CME activity with full knowledge and awareness that they waive any claim they may have against the FMA for injury or other damage that may result in any way from their participation in this activity.