Mountain Therapy Family Camp: Held at Snow Mountain Ranch, Granby, Colorado

June 17 – 22 Developmental Delays/Disorders

June 24 – 29 Autism Spectrum Disorders

July 8 – 13 Developmental Delays/Disorders

July 15 – 20 Down Syndrome

July 29 – August 3 Developmental Delays/Disorders

Campers with autism spectrum disorders and Down syndrome are not restricted to the designated weeks and may apply for any week. Check-in is on Sunday. Programming continues through the final afternoon, so families may want to arrange lodging that includes that final night (6 nights total). Therapy Family Camps vary with age, needs and abilities of their campers. All siblings of Therapy Family Program campers ages one year and older are eligible to apply and participate in Sibling camp for a nominal fee. Campers enjoy activities that expand social horizons, increase constructive risk-taking, and provide the opportunity to develop the courage to try new things while increasing independence and confidence.

Additional Information: Check website for additional camp options.

American Diabetes Association

Website: <http://www.diabetes.org/in-my-community/diabetes-camp/camps/>

Phone: (720) 855-1102 ext. 7015

Ages: 8- 17 years old with Type 1 Diabetes

Dates/Costs: July 1 – 6, costs vary by camp, please see website for details, scholarships available

Overnight Residential Camp- Ages 8-14 - The residential program is designed for fun, exploration, and developing lifelong friends. Daily activities include swimming, kayaking, canoeing, volleyball, basketball, hiking, archery, arts and crafts, blob, zipline, flight simulator (AKA Vomitron), human foosball, water slide, gaga ball and riflery. Each night is filled with a special activity; camp fire, crazy night dance, ice cream social, interactive diabetes education and so much more!

Teen Camp- Ages 15-17 - The teen adventure program is a hybrid of residential camp challenging teens to go outside their comfort zone and experience bouldering, white water rafting, mountain bike trails, a high ropes course and the option to go on an overnight backpack trip during the week of camp. The program is in high demand and is highly loved by the hundreds of campers who have participated!

Additional Information: With guidance from camp staff, campers participate in activities such as archery, canoeing, swimming, crafts, camp Olympics, a flight simulator, the "blob" aqua jump, and zip-line. Rock, Paper, Scissors, S'mores, Super Hero Cape's, Swimming, Archery, Problem Solving and Camp Songs are just a few of the ingredients that go into providing Camps, an industry that has been vital in forming young people for more than a hundred years. These activities bring nothing out of the ordinary to life, it's the fact that hundreds of kids who have to wake up and test their blood glucose, and count their carbohydrates at breakfast and stop to test before rock climbing or in the middle of a hike are not singled out for doing so, because everyone is doing it together and everyone is the SAME. That is a normal day at diabetes camp.

Additional Information: Know what is most extraordinary about camp? How it makes kids with serious illnesses feel like “ordinary” kids. Our campers are giggling, laughing, conspiring, are-making, arrow shooting, horseback-riding, canoe-paddling kids. That is both exhilarating and healing. Eye-opening and inspiring. Ordinary and extraordinary. The truth is, our campers are sick and tired of being labeled as “sick”. They’re just kids who want to be kids. And that is precisely what every day (and s’more-roasting night) is all about. (And of course, it is always free of charge) Here’s just a sampling of the things that make Roundup River Ranch so much more than simply camp: zip line, climbing wall, canoes, a fishing lake, big, beautiful, horses, archery, an art yurt. Songs, dancing, Stage Night, ridiculous costumes, star-gazing, cabin mates, fantastic counselors, and so much more.

Sky High Hope Camp

Website: <http://skyhighhope.org/>

Phone: (303) 861-1754

Dates: June 10th – 16th 2018 (Deadline for camp applications is May 1st 2018)

Cost: Free

Ages: 8-18

Additional Information: Sky High Hope Camp, now hosted at Buckhorn United Methodist Church, is a one-week summer camp for children with cancer and their siblings. The facilities at that camp include cabins with electricity and bathrooms, an infirmary, a dining room, and a camp store. The campers participate in a ropes course, nature studies, lake waterfront for canoeing and fishing, arts & crafts, volleyball, archery, a dance, camper skits and music. The staff is trained in the special needs of children who have cancer and their siblings. There is always medical staff on site able to provide needed medical care, administer medications and chemotherapy. At Sky High Hope Camp, physical changes such as limb loss, weight alterations, hair loss, or being a sibling of a child with cancer are not perceived as different by other campers. The variety of programs available to the campers gives them opportunities to build social skills, forge friendships, and just be a “regular kid” having fun while experiencing mountain activities in a safe environment.
