The Northwestern Indiana Regional Planning Commission (NIRPC) is developing a coordinated public transit human services transportation plan. This Coordinated Transit Plan is a federal requirement in order to receive funding that provides resources for eligible transit operators to improve the mobility for people with disabilities, people who are elderly, and people who are low income.

Provide your feedback to help shape public transit in Northwestern Indiana!

Please share this opportunity to participate with friends and neighbors!
Everyone is encouraged to join!
