THINK MUTUAL BANK APPOINTS NEW VPs

Think Mutual Bank has named three new Vice Presidents to lead the bank's Operations and Technology areas:

- Becky Wendland has been named Vice President of Business Solutions. In this role, Wendland will oversee the bank's major system applications and the project management process. Prior to this role, Wendland was the bank's E-Banking Manager.
- Erik Kovash has been named Vice President of Technology Systems and Support. In this role, Kovash will oversee the bank's IT department. Prior to this role, Kovash was the bank's Technology Systems Manager.
- Jill Brion has been named Vice President of Credit Administration. In this role, Brion will oversee the bank's Loss Prevention, Loan Processing and Loan Servicing departments. Prior to this role, Brion was the bank's Loss Prevention Manager.

Leading this team will be Cheryl Schaefer, Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. Schaefer has been with the bank for 38 years and has been Chief Operating Officer for four years. She is now responsible for the bank's Technology and Operations areas.

"I'm looking forward to working with this team of bright, energetic leaders," Schaefer said. "They each bring a set of unique skills and experience to their new roles."

Think Mutual Bank is a community bank headquartered in Rochester, Minnesota, with ten full-service offices in Rochester, Apple Valley, Eagan, Edina, and St. Paul. Think focuses on consumers and small businesses, providing a full array of banking, mortgage, investment, and insurance services.
