CERT AT COLONIAL HERITAGE

Colonial Heritage's Community Emergency Response Team (CH-CERT) includes a group of residents who have completed CERT training. This training provides community members with basic response skills for aiding the professional emergency responders in case of an overwhelming natural or man-made disaster.

CH-CERT functions under the CERT Standard Operating Guidelines of James City County.

The mission if the Colonial Heritage CERT Program is to organize, plan, and train neighborhood volunteers to respond to natural occurring emergencies. The CH CERT group meets every 1st Wednesday of the month in the Clubhouse at 10:00 a.m. The community is encouraged to attend.
