

September 2016

ADULT PROGRAMS

Featured Events

2016 Entrepreneurship Series

Wednesdays, 5:30-8pm | IVES

September 7 | Purple Marketing

September 14 | Cloud Computing

September 21 | Doing Business with the Government

FREE workshops to support entrepreneurs by New Haven SCORE and Connecticut District Office, U.S. Small Business Administration. Supported by Subway.

CT Small Business Development Center

Tuesdays, September 6 & 20, 11 am-3 pm | FAIR HAVEN

Business Advisor Valeria G. Bisceglia provides free, confidential advising services to small business owners and entrepreneurs in every stage of development. Schedule an appointment at (855)428-7232.

New Haven Job Corps Information Session

Wednesday, September 7, 10 am | MITCHELL

Saturday, September 17, 1 pm | FAIR HAVEN

Tuesday, September 20, 4 pm | MITCHELL

Wednesday, September 21 3-5 pm | WILSON

Not interested in college, but looking for a job?

Would like to find a job that pays more? Job Corps provides FREE job training leading to a career!

Technical training in construction technology, medical field, culinary arts and more. For more information visit newhaven.jobcorps.gov or call (203)907-4303.

Photo by: Sigrid Estrada

on writing and stories from her new book The Kite and The String: How to Write with Spontaneity and Control, and Live to Tell the Tale.

What's A Story? (And What's An Ending?) On Writing with Alice Mattison

Tuesday, September 13,
6 pm | IVES

Writers often come up with great starts for stories, then get stuck in the middle of page three... Local author Alice Mattison will share thoughts

Diva's Digest Book Club

Wednesdays, September 14 & 28, 6-7:30 pm
STETSON

Diva's Digest is Stetson's all-women book club. Please come in to sign up.

Wilson Branch Library 10-Year Anniversary!

Thursday, September 15, 10:30 am | WILSON

Mark your calendars for the 10th anniversary of the Wilson Branch Library with a visit from Mayor Toni Harp; Michael Morand, President of the Library's Board of Directors; food; music; and more. Celebrate this milestone at a branch that welcomes more than 100,000 library users annually!

Art Advice from the

Arts Council of Greater New Haven

Thursday, September 15, 1-4 pm | MITCHELL

Thursday, September 29, 1-4 pm | IVES

Need help finding exhibition space/opportunities, performance/rehearsal space or developing new ways to promote your creative work? Debbie Hesse, the Council's Director of Artistic Services and Programs, will be available for one-on-one consultations. Drop-in or schedule an appointment at (203)772-2788 or info@newhavenarts.org.

Urban Life Experience Book Discussion Series

The New Jim Crow : Mass Incarceration in the Age of Colorblindness by Michelle Alexander

Saturday, September 17, 12 pm | WILSON

Join the Urban Life Experience Book Discussion Series at Wilson Library for their next read.

Presenting Hirsh Sawhney Author of South Haven

Monday, September 19,
6:30 pm | MITCHELL

South Haven takes place in the fictionalized suburb just south of our beloved New Haven. Hear from local author and Wesleyan University professor Hirsh Sawhney. His writing has appeared in the New York Times Book Review, the Guardian, the Times Literary Supplement, and numerous other periodicals.

Featured Events (continued)

Alisa's House of Salsa

Tuesday, September 20, 5:30-6:15 pm | WILSON

In celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month, join us for stories, dancing and fun for all ages Alisa Bowens started dancing at age three and years later received her Dance Masters of America Professional Teaching Certificate. Since 2002, she's owned Alisa's House of Salsa, now in Westville.

Windham Campbell Prizes 2016 Festival

We are again proud partners of the Windham Campbell Prizes at Yale! Mark your calendars for the Festival from September 19-21. Search our catalog for "Windham-Campbell 2016 Prize Winner" to borrow from the 31 titles by this year's authors and join us for these two sessions at the Ives.

WINDHAM
CAMPBELL
PRIZES

Cathedrals of the Imagination: On Writers and Libraries

Tuesday, September 20, 12 pm | IVES

Borges famously said that he imagined paradise to be a kind of library. Many writers would agree. Yale Press Director and NHFPL Board Member John Donatich talks to novelists C. E. Morgan, Jerry Pinto, and Tessa Hadley about the role libraries have played in the development of their imaginative work.

Good Girls, Bad Girls, White Girls, and Clever Girls

Wednesday, September 21, 12 pm | IVES

Resisting fixed identities is at the heart of creative endeavor. This might be especially true of gender. Professor Amy Hungerford talks to Hilton Als, Helen Garner, and Tessa Hadley about how this resistance comes to shape the work of the writer.

What is COPD? By Dr. Robert Gifford

Wednesday, September 21, 3 pm | MITCHELL

Co-sponsored by Home Haven

Join us for a presentation on Chronic Obstructive

Pulmonary Disease (COPD) by Dr. Robert Gifford, Professor Emeritus of Medicine at Yale.

HomeHaven

International Day of Peace Tree Dedication and Concert with Mustafa Adil

Saturday, September 24, 2-4 pm | WILSON

Join us and the City of New Haven Peace Commission to celebrate with a tree planting, music and student readings.

Film Screenings & Discussions

Fiday Movie Matinees

Fridays in September, 2-4 pm | IVES

September 2 | Star Trek Into Darkness

September 9 | Star Wars: The Force Awakens

September 16 | Gravity

September 23 | 10 Cloverfield Lane

September 30 | Tomorrowland

Join us for sci-fi films on our Friday afternoons!

A FILM BY MICHAEL MOORE
Where To Invade
Next
"HILARIOUSLY FUNNY!
MOORE'S BEST YET."

Where to Invade Next: Michael Moore

Saturday, September 24, 2 pm | MITCHELL

Filmmaker Michael Moore visits various countries to examine how Europeans view work, education, health care, sex, equality, and other issues. Discussion will follow the film.

NHFPL Galleries

Everything Nice

Regan Avery

Anita Gangi Balkun

Megyn Craine

Roxanne Faber Savage

Kathryn Frund

Martha Willette Lewis

John O'Donnell

Rashmi

September 12 – November 4 | Ives Gallery

Opening Reception:

Monday, September 12, 5:30-7:30 pm

Inspired by the New Haven Free Public Library's cake pan collection, this group of Connecticut artists has re-envisioned childhood toys and iconic characters, playing with notions of gender, commercialism, identities, choices and the freedom of being oneself.

Art Exhibition: Andrzej Dutkanicz

September –October | Fair Haven

Stop in to view works by local artist Andrzej Dutkanicz, on display throughout the children's and adult areas. Curated by Alison Walsh, Exhibitions Coordinator and Registrar, Yale University School of Architecture Gallery.

