Thanksgiving Celebration

Wonder.

Recently I watched a video of a little girl meeting her baby sister. Baby sister is all wrapped up, and big sister takes a peek in at her face. “Whoa!” she exclaims. Then she begins to unwrap the swaddle and the tiny hands appear. “Tiny fingers!” she says. “Whoa!” And then, upon further contemplation, another “Whoa!” and a “Mommy! Look!”

It is a scene of wonder. Wonder at a baby.

He holds his little hand out in front of him, turning it this way and that, wiggling his fingers. The look on his face is one of awe. What is this thing? How is it moving? Am I doing that? I find Thomas engaged in wondering at his hand a few times a week, and as I watch his wonder, I am filled with wonder myself. How is this hand here, attached to this wonderful little boy?

It is a double scene of wonder. Wonder at a baby.

Wonder is defined as “a feeling of surprise mingled with admiration, caused by something beautiful, unexpected, unfamiliar, or inexplicable.”

During this Advent season, you are invited to wonder with us--wonder at a baby, born in a manger. Feel the surprise as we prepare again for Christ’s surprising birth, the beautiful, unexpected gift of Emmanuel, God with us. Marvel at the amazingness that God would choose this path, this form, this way of bringing light into the darkness. It is the most wonderful time of the year, so stop, listen, see, and wonder with us.

Pick up an advent devotional that will help you with the practice of stopping in this busy season, listening to God, reflecting on scripture, and practicing poetry as a means for helping us wonder and appreciate life.

Attend our Wonderful Advent Activities. We begin with making advent wreaths on December 3, baking cookies and caroling on December 10, and making gingerbread houses on December 17.

In worship, we will wonder together as we wait for the advent of our king, for Christ to come again, as we wonder at John the Baptist’s humble preparing the way, and Mary’s trusting yes to welcome God within her. We will wonder and marvel together at the dramatic and musical gifts of our choirs and WOW and Faithwalk youth in our combined Christmas Program/Cantata on December 17. And we will make our way to that wondrous and joyous day of Christ’s birth together.

God invites us to stop, listen, and experience the wonder of this most wonderful time of year.

In wonder,
Pastor Christie

Thank you for all the ways you make the world a brighter place... Thanks for the flowers that were on the Altar on Sunday (Nov. 12) in memory of my husband. The flowers are so very beautiful.

Love in Christ,
Shirley Lee

Thank you for the flowers I received for my birthday.

What's Happening in Youth & Family Ministry?

By: Jill Galyon

The Ultimate Lock-In At Enchanted Castle November 10-11

On Friday, Nov. 10, sixteen youth and three adults participated in the Metro Chicago Synod's youth activity for middle school and high school youth—the Ultimate Lock-In! We arrived at Enchanted Castle in Lombard at 9 pm. Enjoyed some ice breaker games, heard a speaker/singer and ate some pizza all before being let loose on all the FUN that is Enchanted Castle. We left to go home at 5 am. A fun time was had by all!!! Special THANKS to Eric Jakubowski & Peter Stone!!

Simply go to: tastefullysimple.com/web/mciske, shop, then choose St Mark (St M) as the host at check out. SIMPLE!! Future tastings in the New Year.

Refugee Resettlement

By Deacon Dave

Friends, the Refugee Family we are resettling is on their way! We greeted them at O'Hare on November 30th. They come to Chicago via Ethiopia and Eritrea. They boarded an air plane sometime after November 29th not knowing where they would land until the pilot on the plane welcomed them to Chicago. Each member of the family is allowed to bring two 50lbs bags. Our family brought less than that with them. Check out the bulletin board in the hallway for more pictures and updates on how the family is doing.

As you prepare to celebrate Christmas this year I hope you will consider welcoming a refugee family as part of your Christmas celebration. Mary and Joseph traveled a great distance and with Jesus' birth they embarked on a greater pilgrimage and exile. Political enemies of the king, the Holy Family, that serene and peaceful looking trio, spent twelve years living in exile as refugees. This Christmas we get the chance to walk with a family as they journey further in their refugee pilgrimage. We get the chance to share God's abundant hospitality and the chance to experience God's endless grace as we wait to see how it is that this holy family bears God in our midst.

If you would like to visit with the family in the midst of their resettlement let me know so that we can begin the training and background check process. There will be future opportunities to go on outings with the family if you would like to do something out and about! Please continue to hold the family in your prayers as we journey together!

Refugee Ministry/St. Lazarus Bakery

The oven is on and bread will be available for purchase 9-11am on Sundays, December 3rd—December 17th. You can purchase full size loaves for $5 or baguettes for $2.50. Proceeds will help fund the current Refugee families' resettlement. Monetary donations also are welcome.

Advent

With the many things happening during the season of Advent we are inviting you to take time to stop and wonder a little bit as we prepare for God's great entrance into human life on Christmas. On top of the Advent Wonder Activities on Sunday night, the Advent devotional, the Christmas Program & Cantata, the Preschool PJ pageant, and the Christmas Eve and Christmas Day services, we will have an interactive station set up right outside the transept that will help you get ready for Christmas. There will be lots of sensory activities to help you learn about the Christmas story. The interactive display will be curated by WOWand FaithWalk students.

Thoughts from the Loft

What carols will be running through your head this Christmas? Will they be sacred or secular? We all can admit that the music of Advent and Christmas speaks to each one of us in a special way. I hope you will find at least a few tunes that give you strength as we live out this most wonderful time of the year. May we do it with a joyful song!

Peace,
Tim

Stewardship

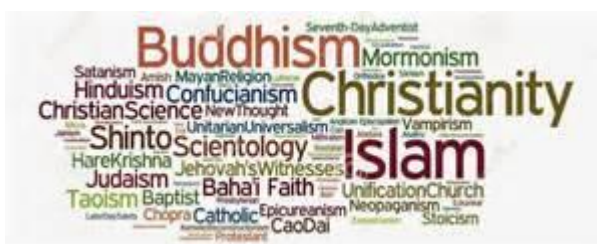

The movement from Thanksgiving into Advent and then finally to Christmas creates what for most of us is the busiest time of the year. It's somewhat strange I think, that the most meaningful spiritual focus of these three seasons is Thanksgiving, which really has no religious history. But it taps into the heart of Christian discipleship, a spirit of gratitude. Thankfulness gladdens the heart, and enriches the soul. Not only when we feel blessed with ample food and the necessities of daily life, but also when we realize that we have received from God our very life, as well as the joy and nurture of relationships we celebrate with parents, siblings, relatives and friends.

through giving

On November 19, we concluded our annual focus on giving with an opportunity for making a commitment or pledge for financial support of St. Mark ministries. Following the 10:00 a.m. service, we enjoyed a light lunch and heard personal stories regarding living generously from Judy Fell, Paul Post, Chuck and Marie LaPaglia. After much laughter and applause, we realized once again what a blessing it is to be part of this gathering of God's people.

Remember to use the blue pew cards to indicate that you use electronic giving, and also to share your experiences during the week where you were blessed to give of yourself (volunteer work, giving of time and presence, helping someone in need) or when you received a blessing from another's generosity. May your Advent preparation and celebration of the birth of the Messiah bring joy and peace to you and yours.
