Prayer Stations during Lent

It is odd to be so filled with waiting and expectation in the season of Lent. Advent is the season of waiting, not Lent. And yet, I find myself living Lent with such anticipation for new life this year as we prepare for the birth of Baby Boy Webb in early May. It does seem apropos with our Lenten theme of Living the Questions, though, that my anticipation of baby’s birth comes with many questions: how bad will the diapers really be? Will he ever sleep? Will I ever sleep? Will I know what to do? It also comes with many questions for you all as well: How will we get to celebrate this birth? How will ministry be covered? How will our needs be cared for during parental leave? While I will have to live my way into the answers I have about being a mom, I can answer some of your questions.

How will we get to celebrate the birth of Baby Webb?

David and I are so delighted that we will get to raise this baby within this community of St. Mark. They say it takes a village... we are glad to have one! We will share the joy of the first months with you via pictures that will be posted on St. Mark’s Facebook page, sent out in the weekly Eblast as well as put on the bulletin board by the Great Room, on the slides before Sunday worship and in the June Crossbeams. We will also delight the day Baby Webb gets to meet you all. This will likely happen after Pastor Christie’s 8 week maternity leave. We know that is a long time for you all to wait! However, it feels right to us for health reasons (vaccines) as well as life reasons as we take time to bond with our baby, learn each other’s routines, and live a life where sleep (and keeping a tidy house) is a luxury. We’ve had 2 years of living into being your pastor and deacon, and want to give ourselves time to live into being parents before we try to meld our roles of deacon and pastor with that parenting. We thus ask for privacy in the home as we figure out how to do this whole parenting thing. Please refrain from calling or dropping by the house during our time of leave.

How will parental leave work?

Pastor Christie will be taking 8 weeks of maternity leave. Deacon David will take 2 weeks of paternity leave, and then balance home time with covering the things that need to happen over the summer in his ministry here. During their leave time Christie and David will not be working – this includes checking emails or responding to phone calls about church matters. Please direct any questions or concerns to the church office or Carol Floros, the Council President.

Who will cover ministry during this time?

The ministry of St. Mark is the work of the people. We will all be giving of our time and our talent to keep ministry running smoothly during this time. The plans for my specific areas of ministry are as follows. Rev. Carl Anderson and Rev. Vivian Becker will cover presiding responsibilities for Sunday worship. Pastor Carl and Pastor Vivian will also preach some weeks, as will Deacon David as well as guest preachers from ministries we support. Pastoral care concerns will be covered by lay ministers for homebound visits and initial hospital contact as well. Pastor Carl Anderson will be the pastor on call for emergency situations and pastoral care follow up as necessary. Administrative questions can be directed to the office to be distributed to Executive Committee, Council, office staff and Deacon David.

TOGETHER WE ARE THE ST. MARK FOUNDATION

St. Mark's benevolence program flows through the Foundation, giving grants each year to various ministries and organizations. In Matthew 25 we see the clear picture Jesus paints of how we are to live as people of God. We are to feed the hungry, provide drink to those who thirst, be a welcoming community, clothe the naked, tend to those who need care. We do these things as we follow the teachings of Jesus.

How many opportunities to give do you receive in the mail each week? Sometimes it is overwhelming. Some come from our favorite charities which we give to regularly, so we might be glad to see them. Many, however, are nuisances. How do we get on so many mailing lists when we have never given to those causes? Charities often sell their mailing lists to others, so a gift to one charity of our choice might lead to receiving numerous solicitations. St. Mark does not sell or share its mailing list, so we can be assured that giving to and through St. Mark is protected. We can also be assured that St. Mark Church, the Foundation Board, and the ELCA are very careful to use the gifts received wisely for their ministries, and they work hard to research ministries and organizations they support. The application form for grants from the St. Mark Foundation includes requiring tax status, purpose, financial statements, effectiveness, and an explanation of how grant monies would be used. The Foundation Board takes into consideration duplicity of the population served, includes ELCA related organizations such as World Hunger and missionaries, gives consideration to local services as well as other factors before deciding which ministries and organizations to support and the amount to offer. Substantial grants are given to those ministries and services with which we have hands-on partnerships, such as Journeys/PADS and Holy Family Ministry's School.

The Foundation Board has set a 2017 goal of increasing St. Mark's benevolent giving so that we can do more. The Foundation receives funds from the congregation's designated gifts to "Benevolence". There are three boxes on your offering envelopes to indicate how you want your offerings to be used. All are important; Current (operating expenses), Benevolence (caring for others), Capital (property maintenance). You will find "Benevolence" in the middle box. If you make your offering electronically, be sure to indicate your designation to the St. Mark office.

We receive offering envelopes indicating "Remembrance-Memorial" included each month in the offering envelope packet. You can add to benevolence giving by designating gifts in memory or in honor of special people in your life.

A third opportunity is to name the St. Mark Foundation in your will. How gratifying to know we can help others even beyond our earthly lives.

When we combine our gifts and collectively give substantial amounts to help others, we can accomplish so much more than we can with small gifts to many causes. Together, we are the St. Mark Foundation. Together, we are doing God's work.

How can we show love for new baby Webb until we get to meet him?

As you wait to meet Baby Webb, we would first of all love your prayers for a healthy birth and first months of life as well as patience and perseverance for David and me as we learn how to be parents. The next best gift of love for Baby Boy Webb is the gift of time with his parents. We appreciate you giving us that time. You are welcome to drop cards or notes at the Church Office and we will pick them up in a timely manner. We also know that we are a community that likes to feed people (Nourishing God's People: Body, Mind, and Spirit is our mission statement after all) so we are arranging a schedule for providing meals. Please connect with Sharon Blazek if you are interested in being part of this way of supporting us. Meals will be dropped off at St. Mark and we will pick them up there. In the meantime, enjoy the pictures and stories we share and know that we have a long life together of watching this little one grow.

In closing, I want to say how wonderful it is to be part of this community at this time in our lives as we dive head first into the adventure of parenthood. St. Mark is a deeply caring community and we've known and felt your care in these months of pregnancy and will feel it surround us as we welcome baby into the world. Thank you for your love and care!

In Christ,
Pastor Christie

Save the Date: Friday, October 13

*This year for the Easter Vigil we will gather outside for the new fire and then hear the stories of God's salvation throughout history around that new fire, campfire style, the way these stories were originally told and told throughout the ages. We will have chairs available, but if you have camping chairs feel free to bring them. Please wear clothing appropriate for some time outside as well as inside as we will then proceed into the sanctuary to continue the service. Rain plan is to have a "campfire" in the Great Room. Join us for what is one of my favorite worships of the year! Questions: contact Pastor Christie.

Pop Up Bakery...

St. Mark Bread Baker's Guild is sponsoring a pop up bread bakery April 18th, 19th, and 20th. We are looking for volunteers! Anyone interested in learning a simple bread recipe, baking biscuits, making butter, granola, and other fun things is welcome to join us. Please contact Deacon Dave.

We're also looking for sturdy casserole pans or dutch ovens that you are willing to loan us or donate to the bakery.

Community Garden

The Community Garden team is getting ready for the spring thaw! Please contact Deacon David if you would like to claim some organic garden space, donate some seeds, or if you would like to spend time outside watering and weeding.

Holy Week 2017

Bread is the Church By Deacon David Webb

We find ourselves in that time of year when bread becomes a big part of our church conversation. Whether we find ourselves putting in our orders of Hot Cross Buns, participating in the yearly Communion Workshop, or looking for something to go with Lenten Soups, bread is not just on our minds! On Maundy Thursday Jesus will leave the disciples with a loaf of bread and remind them that this bread is his body. Jesus will tenderly give them his body and entrust them to care for it, bake it, share it with the hungry, and see that it grows and expands.

There will be several opportunities to ruminate on this mystery of the church this spring! Several first hand opportunities to enjoy this gluten rich crusty mystery of the church!

Communion Workshop Saturday April 8th from 10AM-2PM

We offer our yearly Communion workshop for students and families who are interested in learning more about Holy Communion. The workshop is open to everyone! Whether your students already receive communion, don't yet receive communion but would like to, don't yet receive communion and maybe aren't ready to, this workshop is a great learning and fun opportunity.

There isn't an age when students are "more ready" to receive Holy Communion. We believe that Holy Communion is a mystery that unfolds our entire lives. As Christians we spend our whole lives participating in the ritual and learning as much as we can, no matter how old we are. We also believe that there is more than one way to celebrate First Communion as a family. Some parents like their children to wait until they can intellectually enter into the ritual more deeply when they are older. Some parents like children to participate and learn and grow from an early age. At St. Mark we strive to make the service meaningful for your family.

At the workshop we bake bread, make grape juice, watch Holy Moly, tell Bible stories, learn about Holy Communion, help set up communion, learn the names of communion vessels, taste the elements, make communion collages, and get a back stage tour of the sacristy.

Students who are receiving communion for the first time can receive communion at the Maundy Thursday service April 13th 7PM, Saturday April 15th at the Easter Vigil 7PM, or any of the Easter Sunday services April 16th. Make arrangements for the workshop and First Communion with Deacon Dave.

Maundy Thursday Worship Thursday April 13th 7PM

On this one of a kind liturgical night, we worship around the Lord's Table. Communion is celebrated with elements the children made at the First Communion Workshop. Students will also receive First Communion that night. This worship service gives us the chance to witness exactly how church is built around the bread and wine.

St. Lazarus' Practicing Resurrection Pop-Up Bakery

St. Mark's Bread Bakers Guild is sponsoring the St. Lazarus Pop-Up Bakery. A pop-up bakery is a bakery that is not bound by a fixed location, any oven will do! Lazarus, of course, was the friend of Jesus who was brought back from the dead. He is also the runner up patron saint of Bakers. St. Honore with his cream filled cakes won out.

The guild likes Lazarus because he practiced resurrection and often times our baking requires a lot of trying again and again and at times all out resurrection. In the same vein of second chances, we've decided to hit the ovens this Easter to raise money for our refugee ministry at St. Mark which is in the business of making sure good people get a fresh start.

Deacon Dave's famous rustic country bread that has been making an appearance at Lenten Soup Suppers will be available to pick up April 18th, 19th, and 20th.

St. Lazarus' will also offer some of their favorite baked goods for sale as well like biscuits, cookies, cereal, pizza dough and homemade butter. All you need to do is pick up an order form and return it to Deacon Dave. You never know St. Lazarus' Bakery might pop up again before you know it!

Thoughts from the Loft

First of all, you should know that major keys are happy and minor keys are sad. Many of our Lenten hymns are in minor keys to reflect the solemnity of the season. Many of our Easter hymns are in major keys to reflect the joy of the season.

One time I sight read a piece for a teacher of mine. When I was done the teacher pointed out to me that the piece was in a major key and not in a minor key. He said, "Tim, it is a happy piece, not a sad one!" That is a good reminder as Easter dawn approaches. It is a happy time to celebrate our redemption from sin and evil and the promise of eternal life with our Lord. Blessings on your Lenten and Easter journey.

In peace,
Tim
