November Fun for ALL Ages

"May you surround them and fill them with the peace that passes all understanding."

These words find their way into almost every prayer I pray in pastoral care situations, be they in hospitals, rehabilitation centers, homes, my office. In addition, I sign most emails and letters with the sign off "Peace." Why is that? What am I hoping for? What I'm praying for is that sense that God surrounds you, that you are in God's hands, that God is working for good and working in mercy. That all of that will help you know peace in your heart, an inner stillness, like the feeling of a deep breath, a warm hug, a comfortable blanket. In the Gospel of John, Jesus says "Do not let your hearts be troubled." In Philippians, Paul writes "Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus." This is what I'm hoping, that even in the midst of the hardest moments of life, we will know Christ's peace, unfathomable, surprising, so needed.

This December we find both our Advent theme of PEACE, and our St. Mark Value of CARING, come together in a mashup of focus. CARING is one of our top values here at St. Mark (along with WELCOMING, GROWING, and CONNECTING). We value Caring: for the sick, the hurting, the grieving in our midst and beyond. When we care for people in such situations, when we minister to them through the ministry of presence and prayer, my hope is that they will experience the peace of Christ in knowing that they are not alone, but surrounded by God, and surrounded by this community.

In the pages that follow you will find many ways that you are invited this season to share PEACE through caring. Each Sunday, we will create a space for peace in worship, to care for you as you care for others. We will also have Sanctuary: A Peaceful Space on Thursday evenings from 6-7:30 in the church. Come take a some time for a deep breath in the midst of this busy season, and enjoy some soft music and the beauty of the decorated sanctuary. Deacon David has PEACE programming for children. We have Advent Devotionals to carve out peace in your life. Pick up an ornament from our Star Tree and purchase a gift to care for someone in need. Attend the preschool PJ Pageant on December 9 and help young families know they are surrounded by community. Come bake cookies at Cookie Bake on Dec. 16. Celebrate another way we care for the grieving with the Columbarium Dedication on Dec. 2. Contact Pastor Christie or Kathie Hetland if you would like to help deliver poinsettias to homebound members after Christmas.

And, then, consider how you can keep up that caring work in the New Year. Can you visit with a homebound member? Can you bring homebound members communion? Can you deliver flowers? Can you join the prayer chain and pray for those in need? Can you give rides to people who need them for doctors appointments, etc? Can you pray for people as a Healing Minister at our monthly healing service? Can you greet grieving families on the day of memorial and funeral services and coordinate flower distribution after services are complete? If you answered yes to these, or think of another way you can CARE for the sick, the hurting, the grieving in our midst and beyond, contact Kathie Hetland, chair of Congregational Care.

And friends, may God's PEACE be with you this season and always.

Peace,
Pr. Christie

Beginning December 2 we will spend the season of Advent considering Peace and the Prince of Peace whose advent into the world brings peace to us all. Join us for worship each Sunday filled with peaceful moments. Try out Sanctuary: A Peaceful Space, on Thursdays December 6, 13, and 20. The church sanctuary will be open from 6-7:30pm with candles lit, Christmas Trees lit, and some quiet music playing. This is a chance to just catch your breath for a few minutes, or however many you can get! Deacon Dave is offering an hour of Advent Peace for Children 0-9 and their parents from 6-7 each of those Thursday nights. Participants can come to one or all of the sessions of story, art, and spending time with God. Registration for Advent Peace for Children is required. Email Deacon David to sign up now. Devotional materials are now available in the narthex to help you find peaceful moments in your daily life. Questions? Contact Pastor Christie.

exploreGod™

If God is good, why is there pain and suffering in the world? How can I know for sure that the Bible is reliable? Does prayer really work?

Have you ever asked yourself any of these questions? Do you feel like you're not really allowed to ask them in church? Well, we've got good news: we all have questions! We want St. Mark to be a safe place to ask questions. On January 13 we kick off our Explore God series. We'll embark on an 7-week journey, looking at some of the hard topics that challenge all of us—believers and nonbelievers alike. Each Sunday will feature these questions. Then, we'll get together once a week to watch a few videos and discuss them openly. We all have questions. We all wonder. Our Explore God series will be a safe place to explore answers with others. So invite your friends, and come explore with us!

Peace On Earth

By: Deacon David Webb

In all of the gatherings of young people, (WOW!, Faithwalk, SHINE!, and Children's Church) we have been asking the question: "What does peace on earth look like?"

Children seem to know that there is an innate connection to peace with all of human life. They know that there are wars and conflicts from which we need peace. They know that there are neighborhoods that fight wars against drugs and violence. They know that families everywhere experience conflict and division. They know that people, regardless of their lives, are always searching for inner peace. They know that those without food and shelter are constantly searching for a different kind of peace.

Each December as we prepare for Christmas we know that there is a peace we are waiting for that hasn't come yet. This year will be no different. As we get ready for Christmas, we await the full coming of the Prince of Peace and the Kingdom of God that is justice and peace for all.

As Advent begins there will be many opportunities to reflect on peace on earth and share your vision and prayer for peace, but take this moment to get started. What does peace on earth look like?

Thoughts from the Loft

The Christmas carol "Silent Night" is 200 years old this year. Composed in 1818, it has an interesting history. A priest named Joseph Mohr had a problem at his church come Christmas 1818. The organ was infested with mice and not playable. Mohr sought other options for music making and found a poem he wrote a few years before. He brought that poem ("Silent Night") to a local musician and organist, Franz Gruber. Gruber set the text to a melody that would be accompanied by guitar. What resulted is the "Silent Night" we know and love today. On that Christmas in 1818 this simple carol was played in a simple way, with guitar. We can cherish the story behind this beloved carol this year.

Peace!
Tim
