

The Navigating Real Life Diversity series presents

Rethinking the past Examining the present Changing our future

Rethinking the Past

Lawyer, author, parent, and former Chicago police officer, Jacqueline Battalora, reveals how the human category "white people" was first used in laws and the purpose it served. She will explore current day consequences of this history and consider how we move toward shared ideals of justice.

January 25, 2018 *6:30 PM - 8:30 PM

Family Focus, 2010 Dewey Avenue

Presented by Jacqueline Battalora Professor of Sociology at Saint Xavier University

Free and open to the public * Spanish interpretation provided * Childcare provided

JOIN US WHEN THE SERIES CONTINUES

Examining the present to change our future

February 27, 2018

Stacey Gibson will facilitate a panel discussion with local leaders to highlight institutional and systemic racism in Evanston.

Participants will walk away with tools to identify racial-based oppression and steps they can take to disrupt those systems.

Stacey Gibson is a parent, consultant, writer, and educator. She is the founder of Transform the Collective.

Presented by the Evanston/Skokie PTA Council in partnership with Evanston/Skokie School District 65, Evanston Public Library, Youth & Opportunity United (Y.O.U.), Family Focus, YWCA Evanston/North Shore, The Moran Center for Youth Advocacy, the Organization for Positive Action and Leadership (OPAL), and the McGaw YMCA

Organization for Positive
Action and Leadership

evanston public library

